

The Daily Post.

THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 22, 1893.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY MEETINGS.—The Democratic Executive Committee met at 7 o'clock on Friday afternoon, 19th inst., and organized by electing John W. Henry, President.

OUR WEEKLY.—The Weekly Post, containing all the latest news, foreign, domestic, local, commercial and financial, may be had at our counting room this afternoon, in wrappers ready for mailing.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.—To-day, between the hours of four and seven o'clock, the Democrats of the several wards of the city will hold their primary meetings for the election of delegates to meet in convention on Tuesday next.

NOT A CANDIDATE.—We are requested to state that Mr. Alexander Hunter is not a candidate for the office of City Controller before the Democratic Convention.

THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE.—One of the things, in all life, the most difficult to form any estimate of is the value of a human life, and yet there appears to be a springing up, in the minds of a few extremists, both North and South, a recklessness as to its value.

DEATH OF HON. LINN BOYD.—Private despatches to St. Louis and Cincinnati announce the death, at his residence in Kentucky, of Hon. Linn Boyd.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The foreign news by the recent arrivals, although not of considerable political importance is still interesting.

THE SEWING MACHINES.—Which are being sold with all the valuable improvements at a very low price.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS!—THESE DESIRING TO PURCHASE! Presents for the Christmas Holidays, would do well to call at

GOV. BLACK'S MESSAGE.

We have received the Omaha Nebraska of December 10th, containing Gov. Black's message, to which we alluded some days ago.

For the Pittsburgh Post.

Mr. Editor:—I would respectfully suggest the name of Luke Taaffe, Esq., as a candidate for the office of City Controller.

Virginia Preparing.—The State of Virginia is preparing for the next year for defense against foreign enemies and in connection with a new border.
