

PITTSBURGH POST-TRIBUNE

Justice is certainly an odd fish—he has only a single pair of scales.
How to destroy? One of these days, he may be polite enough to return your blow.

"Do you believe, sir, that the dead ever walk after death?" No, Ankle of the dead, I have heard the Dead March in Saul!
A prominent advocate of the revival of the slave trade, talks about "great cry and little wood." We suppose he alludes to negro babies.

"Stop that abominable noise," said a commanding officer to a horrid transporter in the midst of a battle. "I've cast stand fire, but we can't stand that noise."

PROCLAMATION.—CITY OF PITTSBURGH: In accordance with the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, passed on the 21st day of March, 1857, and in pursuance of the resolution of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Pittsburgh, passed on the 10th day of December, 1857, the following is the text of the said Act and resolution:
