hartiers DAVID D. BRUCE Chairma THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Governor Packer's message we received las night at nine o'clock. As it must have arrived in the city by the 1:45 train, we are at a loss to account for the late hour of its delivery in our box at the Post office. As our working force were up the whole of Tuesday night, awaiting the returns of the city election, we postpone its publication until this afternoon, when it may be had at our counting room, in our Weekly paper. We are under obligations to the Governor for copies sent in advance of ts delivery.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END. If the British House of Commons were to misbehave itself as the House of Representatives of the United States have been doing for the past month, the whole country would rise up in arms against them. ' Politically speaking, the country is in a state of anarchy, for a co-ordinate branch of the government-necessary to the very existence of the State-practically refuses against him and others of the Pittsburgh press. to perform its functions. A body of men, I did not think that any enlightened, patriotic selected by the people from among themman could be found to speak sneeringly and selves, for their supposed wisdom and contemptuously of the "union meetings," knowledge of the necessities of the country, and sent to the federal capital to make proof Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, comvisions for carrying on the government, are posed of many of the most distinguished perdevoting their time and energies to bitter sons of those cities. I am sorry that I was and exciting debates, which can do the mistaken. The editor, in his polite and elocountry no good, even if they do it no quent language, tells us that he has been harm, and hitherto have refused to perform "poking fun at them." Indeed ! The action of the Southern legislatures is not Union, was on the part of those who opposed simply declaratory—it means that they will act if the North compels them to the last a consolidated, and not of a federal Union; act if the North compels them to the last resort. If the Republican party of the North, for one moment, deem that the country does not hold them responsible for the present condition of affairs, they are grossly mistaken. They—their acts and doctrines—have created the antagonism from which the country now suffers.
