THE SIXTH PRESHYIERIAN CHURCH
TROUBLES IN COURT.—Many of our readers are aware that there have been troubles of a serious character in the Sixth Presbyterian Church relative to the election of trust estimated in the Sixth Presbyterian of Mr. Lincola. Among them is of Parke, A. W. Foster, Eq., asked for a rule to show cause why the election of two of the present trustees should not be set aside, alleging that they had been illegally chosen, under the charter. A preliminary argument was had, J. H. Miller, Eq., opposing the application of the ground that at the election, at which Mr. Foster claimed a majority of the members had voted, a number, debarred by the charter, by not having paid up their puw rent, had voted, a number, debarred by the charter, by not having paid up their puw rent, had voted a number, of learning the reason of the present time may reason the number of the present time may reason the number of the present time may reason the present trustees should not be set as the court hoise, on Saturday the charter, by not having paid up their puw rent, had voted, a number, debarred by the charter, by not having paid up their puw rent, had constituted as a proposition of the form of the present trustees should not be accompanied to the first purpose.
