The child was supposed to be in this city, and the mother was in m. ch distress about it, but all her efforts to ascert, in its whereabouts failed. Finally, within a fe'w days, District Attorney Miller ascertained that the infant, after being moved from place to prace by direction of Its father, to avoid detection, was at a house in Pipetowa, but thought it best to let it remain there until the mother should be in the city. She arrived in the city yesterday, and in the evening officers Patterson and Moon went to the house for the child, closely followed by the mother. When they entered the house and knowledge of it, and ran out of the house. The officers went up stairs, where they found the child; its cries attracted the mother, who nized the child at once, and even the clothing upon it. As may be imagined, the mother

SAWYER'S SOAP AND CANDLES .- No more staple articles are sold in this or any other market than the soap and candles manufactured by Melers. B. C. & J. H.
