

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The action of the Democratic State Convention, at Harrisburg, yesterday, was of such a character as to command the approval of all the men of sound conservative principles and true patriotism in the State.

After a free consultation and interchange of opinion, after listening to the eloquent speeches from men who love their country, and their whole country, and who have the best interests of the people at heart, the convention passed resolutions in favor of the Crittenden compromise and the Union, and against secession.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY POST.

Democratic Convention.

Mr. W. H. Webb called the Convention to order at the hour designated. An motion of Mr. C. H. Smith, of the City, was called on to make prayer.

MR. LINCOLN'S SPEECHES.

The President elect is obliged to make more than an immense quantity of little speeches, as he progresses from place to place, that we cannot find room to publish more of them than the telegraph brings us.

THE TARIFF BILL.

After being changed in many important respects, the Morrill tariff bill has passed the Senate by a decided majority.

SEVENTH DOUGLASS' PLAN.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says: "Judge Douglas, whose energies of both mind and body have been directed to securing such a compromise as will bring about a proposition to the Senate, if the Peace Congress agree upon any reasonable program, which will be acceptable to all parties."

THE COTTON STATES.

The area of the cotton States exceeds about four times that of Great Britain or Prussia. It is nearly three times that of France, five times that of Germany, three or four times that of Spain, and nearly double that of the Russian Empire in Europe.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

Washington dispatches dispose of a rumor or two about the intentions of European governments toward the seceded States.

AN EXTRA SESSION PROBABLY.

It is considered very probable that an extra session of Congress will be called. There is an immense amount of business crowding on at the end of the session, to dispose of which seems not to be possible, besides, it is impossible to say, in these times, what it may be necessary to do.

THE PATENT OFFICE.

The troubles do not seem to disturb the inventive interests of the country. Nearly every patent was issued on Tuesday, about one hundred were for New York and one hundred for New York and one hundred for New York.

A Curious Affair.

Some eight or ten years ago, the body of a man was found in the River at Rome. It was recognized as that of a porter, well known to the city, but a stranger to the man who was found at the same time in a sack.

The Inauguration.

The plan for conducting the ceremonies of Mr. Lincoln's inauguration does not differ materially from the usual plan.
