Let every Democrat study it and teach it to his children, and let us all act under it and for the success of the noble and patriotic principles, which it so happily and so opportunely enunciates.

These resolutions can be comprehended by every one without an interpreter. They are clearly and plainly expressed. The doctrines which they enunciate are Democratic doctrines. The platform declares the supreme authority of the Federal Government and its power to preserve itself, and at the same time asserts the independent soy Government. It declares the binding force of the Union, and the patriotic devotion of the Democratic party to the Union. The equal rights of all the States are fairly and equitably acknowledged as relates to the Territories, and the party is pledged to sustain this right until a satisfactory dividing line can be constitutionally settled. The Crittenden compromise, or something equivalent to it is approved and cordially recommended to the support of Democrats of every class. An armed aggression upon the seceding States is disapproved, especially so long as any northern State maintains laws which conflict with the just demands of the South, and the party is pledged against coercion until the South has the partizan course of Governor Curtin in his appointment of commissioners to the Peace convention, reprobated as it ought to be. That portion of our laws which interferes with the strict enforcement of the fugitive slave law, is recommended to be Gents:—Above please find statement of Mr. John G.

Daly, merchant of our city, in regard to Hussranz's
INSTRABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE. This testimony is given the public claiming to be Hair Restoratives, and must be the public considered concuste as to the meries of the Immittable. Am out of the large size. Forward by Railroad double the quantity we had before. Very truly yours. W. A. BRLL.

T WILL RESTORE THE NATURAL COLOR OF where age or sickness has turned ligrey, and it will render it soft and glossy. "ANYBODY"

Who may try it, will find that it does not color the skin, but by stimulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strongth to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It can be used as freely as water upon the scalp, and with as much, safety—is comprised of oil and stimulating spirits, and as an article for the toilet, has no equal.
