THE PITTSBURGH COURTS.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Before Judge Mellon, Adams and Parke. In the case of F. Schenck vs. the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad, appeal from the award of view for damages to the property near Oakland, the plaintiff recovered $1,000.

CHAMBERS HIRE & CO. (as Estates firm) vs. Benjamin Siggler, action to recover the price of a book-folding machine, amounting to $100. Judgment for the plaintiff for $100.

PROVING VALUABLE ON TRIAL, it is alleged that the plaintiff agreed to furnish in his stand another machine, which would do the work. They claim the price of the latter, denying the agreement above stated.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The WORTH HOUSE Between one and two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon John Kelly, about thirty years of age, and a son of the well-known school teacher of the same name, died in the wash house, where he was taken about nine o'clock on the morning of the 27th. He was found in the wash house, in a helpless condition. A coroner's inquest was held on the 27th, and the jury found a verdict of death by the hand of God. The body was taken in charge by W. H. Dwyer, and interred in the cemetery on the 28th.

THE LATE P. H. BROWN, a prominent citizen of the city, died on the 27th. He was a native of Pennsylvania, and had resided in this city for many years. He was a member of the bar, and had been a judge of the courts. He was a man of high character, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He is survived by a wife and several children.

REMEMBRANCE.—The last meeting of the Association of the Friends of the Constitution of the United States, held in the city of Philadelphia, on the 27th, was a most successful one. The meeting was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of friends of the cause. The speakers were all able and eloquent, and their addresses were highly appreciated. The meeting closed with a prayer and a benediction.

IMPORTANT TO THE PAYERS.—In the case of Watson vs. the Borough of Hiram, the court has decided in favor of the plaintiff. The court held that the defendant was liable for the damages claimed by the plaintiff. The decision is a landmark one, and will be of great importance to all who are engaged in similar litigation.

NEW CONTRACTS.—The city of Pittsburgh has entered into a new contract with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the transportation of coal. The contract is for a period of five years, and provides for the transportation of 1,000,000 tons of coal annually. The contract is a most favorable one for the city, and will greatly benefit the coal trade.

MASS.—The city of Pittsburgh has been visited by a severe storm, which has done much damage to property. The wind was very high, and the rain fell in torrents. The damage done to the city is estimated at $100,000. The storm was a most unusual one for this time of year, and has caused much suffering and loss.

PUSH BUTTER AND EGGS.—We call attention to the advertisement of D. H. Ferguson in another column. He is offering a large quantity of push butter and eggs, at a very low price. The butter is of the best quality, and the eggs are fresh and healthy. This is a most favorable opportunity for all who are in need of these articles.

GOING INTO OPERATION.—The rolling mill at Allegheny, which has been long expected, is now in operation. The mill is a most complete one, and will be able to produce a large quantity of iron and steel. The opening of the mill is a most important event for the city, and will greatly benefit the iron and steel trade.

A LARGE LOT OF BONES AND HORNS.—We have a large lot of bones and horns, which we are offering at a very low price. The bones are of the best quality, and the horns are of a most unusual size. This is a most favorable opportunity for all who are in need of these articles.

THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY has four recent graduates, fifty-three in the senior class, fifty-one in the middle, and fifty-two in the junior. The graduates are all well qualified for the ministry, and will be a great benefit to the church.

REMARKS MADE AT THE CONCERT HALL.—The concert given at the concert hall on the 27th, was a most successful one. The program was well selected, and the performers were all of high ability. The concert was a most enjoyable one, and was highly appreciated by all who attended.

THE OLD SOLDIERS.—The veterans of 1812, who represented the city of Pittsburgh at the celebration of the 49th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, on the 4th of July, were a most interesting and patriotic group. They were all well preserved, and their presence at the celebration was a most valuable one.

THE EXHIBITION OF THE ALLEGHENY GYMNASIUM.—The exhibition of the Allegheny Gymnasium, which is now in progress, is a most interesting one. It contains a large number of valuable articles, and is well worth a visit. The exhibition is a most successful one, and has been highly appreciated by all who have seen it.

ROBERTSON LODGE, I. O. O. F. of New Brighton, has contributed $20 to the Kansas Relief Fund.

WE call attention to the advertisement of a catalogue sale of books and shoes at the store of John Kobb, deceased, Market street.
