PROBABLE FATAL ACCIDENT -On Saturlay last, the 2nd inst., as we are infirmed by smes Onslow, route agent on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a man agod about forty-five years, named Hight, met with a very serious, if not fatal accident, at Latrobe, under the following pircumstances: As the freight train coming Wis', arrived at New Derry, where the unforturate man resided, he asked permission to ride to Latrobe, which was refused, for the reason that it was against the rules of the com pany to carry passengers, as well as the fact that the train would not stop at the latter place. The man, however, did get on, it is alleged by the officers, without their knowledge, and in attempting to get off the train, when i reached Latrobe, had one leg smarhed off beween the knee and the ankle, and the foot of the other across the instep.
