Mr. Buchanan no doubt acted as he thought the interests of the country demanded. The results show that he has failed in judgment, although we do not doubt his honesty of purpose. His record is now a matter of history. He failed to appreciate the magnitude of sectionalism, and sectionalism has triumphed while he was President. For the present evils which beset the country, no one man, however high his position, is at fault. Mr. Buchanan alone would have done better than Mr.
