It is obvious that as yet Mr. Lincoln has performed few of those things which the val coast guard, which was resolved upon by person or persons, over or above the regular convince the people he would perform. He of a naval coast guard is a most important has not arrested the Southern commissioners for treason, as the Republican press insisted the late administration should have done. He has determined not to reinforce Fort Sumter, and a few days will probably show that the administration will utterly fail to perform those things in regard to the Southern difficulty which a large part of the Republican party expected of it. The intention to carry out the programme nnounced by the Republican press, and re-enunciated in the inaugural may be good enough, but the legal authority lacking. The Chicago Convention adopted "the law" of the Republican party, but the Constitution of the United States and the acts of Congress are the laws by which the President of the United States must direct his course of ac-

RY testimonial in regard to BURKE & BARNE

ME EM. BURKE & BARWES—Gentlemen: On the night of the 22d of February, 1860, all our Machine Shope, Paint Shops, Wood, Material, Engine House, and all the Warehouses of the Southwestern Spoke and Carriage Manufactory, all being entirely filled with dry combustible material, were burned down. In a room of the Paint Shop, where the heat was most intense, was one of your m. ke of Saf-se, containing all our papers, insurance policies, &c., amounding to over $40,000, which, on being taken out, all were entirely safe.

We most cordially recommend the Burke & Barnes Safes as being very superior. Your irrends—PLATT, MARTIN & GORDON,
