FRIDAY MORNING,.....APRIL 5

THE WEEKLY POST.

Our weekly, may be had at the counting-room to-day, in wrappers, ready for mailing.

RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS.

The Mechanics' Bank, of this city, which partially resumed specie payments some months ago, resumed in full within the last few days, and will continue to pay specie in future.

We record this fact with pleasure, and have no doubt that all the suspended banks of this city will soon be found paying coin. It is well understood among business men that the suspension of the Pittsburgh banks was not induced by any weakness or mismanagement on their part, but was solely a consequence of the banking system, and was precipitated by the suspension of the banks of Philadelphia.

When the banks resumed specie payments on the 1st of February, 1858, exchanges in the West were in a much more favorable condition than they are at present. Exchange on the East, in Chicago and St. Louis, is still sold at high rates for the local paper of the Western States, and we suppose this fact will render the payment of specie here more difficult, and has, doubtless, retarded resumption.

But our banks have steadily made vigorous efforts for resumption, and we have no doubt that their endeavors to repair and truly keep their contract with the people will be met with corresponding good feeling and forbearance on the part of the public.

If there was any use in calling the attention of the wise and virtuous men who are legislating at Harrisburg to the fact that one of our banks has resumed specie payment in full, and that the others will probably soon do the same, we might do so, with a view to a mitigation of damages and expenses, to which, we understand, the banks are doomed, for their plain violation of law. We shall, therefore, only say, that if the public and the private treasuries can possibly get along without a lift from the recusant corporations, (and as the banks, as a body, will probably not want the time for suspension extended)—legislation on the subject might be postponed till next winter, when their charters may be declared forfeited, if the public good demands it.

THE SPRING ELECTIONS.

The conservative element is showing its power in the elections recently held. The results are of a most gratifying character to all who desire the perpetuity of the Union. If the local elections in the West and North-west continue as they have been going on thus far they will have an important influence in showing the anti-compromise Republicans what the people expect at their hands.

The conservative triumph in Cincinnati is most decided. The entire Union and Democratic ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 3,000 to 4,000. Last fall Lincoln received a plurality in the same city of some 800 or 900. This result shows most conclusively the drift of popular sentiment in that city. The Democratic and Union ticket in St. Louis is elected by from 2,000 to 3,000 majority. This, too, is a decided gain. Last fall, Blair, an irrepressible Republican, received a majority in the same city. Here is another healthy change in popular sentiment. Sandusky City, Ohio, has given the Democratic Union ticket about 100 majority; the conservative men of Cleveland, Ohio, give their ticket a decided majority, and in Toledo the Democratic Union ticket is elected. Old Connecticut, also, feels the popular impulse, and elects one Democratic Union Congressman, and probably two. The Republican vote on the general ticket is also decreased.

The recent town elections in Pennsylvania, show a great revulsion of popular sentiment. Some townships which never elected a Democratic ticket before, have done it this spring. The argument of these changes is that people are getting tired of Republicanism, sectionalism, the Chicago platform, and the disasters with which they have overwhelmed the country.

THE COUNTY REPORM BILL.

Mr. Errett, of the Gazette, writing from Harrisburg, makes use of the following language, which, of itself, is enough to excite the public attention to the means which are being used to defeat the measures of reform in the management of our county finances, which the people so earnestly demand. The bill referred to by Mr. Errett, is the one which creates a Controller and does away with the present dilatory and expensive system of tax collectors. It is not strange that those who have so long held the purse strings of the county, and made use of their position for political and personal purposes, should be loth to give them up. If the people want reform, they must let the Legislature know what they want, and not permit their own money to be used by their own officials to their own detriment.

In regard to the progress of the Reform Bill, Mr. Errett says:

In the House, this morning, the County Reform Bill was objected off the calendar by a Philadelphia member, and goes over until next week. I am perfectly familiar with the means used to produce this result, and I know that, although our members are almost a unit in desiring its passage, and that, although the bill applies only to Allegheny county and concerns no one outside of it, that the paid agents of the Commissioners, here, expect to accomplish its defeat. If they succeed in defeating it, I will lay bare the whole machinery used for attaining that end.

The Cost of Entertaining a President.

Mr. Lincoln arrived in Harrisburg on the afternoon of the 22d of February, was escorted from the cars to the Jones House, where he made a speech, dined, was escorted to the Capitol, made another speech, supped, and then escaped to Washington, disguised with a "Scotch plaid cap and long military cloak."—The select committee which had charge of these arrangements have reported to the Legislature a bill of $2,155 as the expenses occasioned by the reception and entertainment.—The State is called upon to foot this little bill. The items are thus stated without going into minute particulars:

Carriage hire	$178 00
Refreshments at Continental Hotel	97 50
Bill at Gverly's	640 00
Legislative Committee—$100 apiece	1,200 00
Total	$2,115 50

This nice little bill, be it remembered, does not include the expenses of the parade and display on the 22d of February. That is a separate matter. Before the close of the session another account of two or three thousand dollars may be expected on this score.

United States Treasury.

The total indebtedness of the government is $74,985,299. This includes the various issues of Treasury notes and the loan negotiated in February. The eight million loan to be made will increase this amount to about $88,000,000.

A TRUE VIEW OF THE CASE OF CARL SHURZ.

This adventurer, who was paid by the Republicans for his speeches, and who has been an "irrepressible bore" at Washington ever since Mr. Lincoln's inauguration, and who has been appointed to the Spanish Mission to get rid of him and his importunities, seems likely, in his new position, to be a worse ulcer upon the Republicans than before. The New York Herald has the following very just remarks concerning this Red Republican political gambler who has won an office from our Black Republican President:

Carl Shurz, Mr. Lincoln's Minister to Spain, the most loyal and inflexible Catholic Power on the face of the earth, will be very apt to prove a troublesome appointment. Shurz, if we are not mistaken, is not only a rabid black republican of the ultra anti-slavery type, but a ranting red republican of the Jacobina school, who repudiates the Christian religion in every form as an imposture, and who believes in the Goddess of Reason. The Court of Madrid is the last place in the world to which such a man should be detailed as a representative of the government and people of the United States. But, considering the movements of Spain for the seizure and annexation to her dominions of both ends of the island of Hayti, what influence can such an obnoxious character as Shurz be expected to exercise at Madrid, in behalf of the United States, one way or the other? His red republican antecedents cannot fail to make his appointment offensive to Queen Isabella and her Cabinet; and with them his black republican principles will be hardly less obnoxious. But Schurz had the German legion of the West at his back, and this is the price which "Honest Old Abe" has had to pay for his whistle.

In this connection, we append the following from the last issue of the Cincinnati Commercial:

The objections of the Secretary of State to appointing such a fellow to a first class foreign mission were well taken, and the President should have sustained them. And especially when Schurz lost his self-respect, should others have lost their regard for him. He should have been sent home to try the experiment of raising rebellion among the Republican Germans as he threatened. He would have discovered that the Republican Germans did not belong to him. If he had been kicked out of the White House, as he ought to have been, the Germans would have in turn kicked him out of their confidence. When was he authorized to speak for three hundred thousand Germans? Who gave him a bill of sale for them? The recognition of the German element of the Republican party in the distribution of offices did not depend upon his recognition as the embodiment of the German element. We have knowledge that those most disgusted with the office seeking rampancy of Mr. Schurz, are Germans, who regard his course as reflecting discredit upon them. His brilliant reputation is gone like a bubble.

Washington Items.

The letter writers state that movements are on foot indicating the speedy development of the policy of the administration. Greater activity prevails in the army and navy than has been known since the war with Mexico. Troops have been placed on board ship with sealed orders, and all the vessels of war on foreign stations have been ordered home, while at the navy yards orders have been received to make ready for sea such vessels as are available.

The occupation of St. Domingo by the Spaniards is regarded by the government, it is said, as an act of hostility, and it is conjectured that the extensive naval preparations are but the beginning of a contemplated demonstration in support of the Monroe doctrine.

A Washington correspondent of the Herald states, upon the authority of a Cabinet officer, that the troops sent out on board the sloop-of-war Brooklyn were really intended for the reinforcement of Fort Pickens. It is also stated that the government has received advices which lead to the belief that troops have been landed at the fort. President Davis has recently made a requisition upon the Governors of the Confederate States for troops. They are doubtless intended to operate against Fort Pickens. At any hour we may have news that the long threatened collision of the belligerents has actually taken place.

The order for the evacuation of Fort Sumter has not been yet issued, although the Cabinet, as is well known, some days ago decided upon its abandonment. It appears that an immense pressure has been brought to bear upon the President by the war section of the Republican party; and it is not unlikely now that the administration will throw the responsibility of the surrender of the fort upon Major Anderson, as he will soon be compelled, by reason of lack of supplies, to capitulate. On the other hand, it is believed the administration, while convinced that the fort cannot be reinforced, hope the Southern forces will attack and capture it, and by this action, as they imagine, cast upon the confederate States whatever odium may attach to the inaugurators of a bloody civil war.

An Attempt Made to Spike the Guns at Fort Pickens.

A letter to the Eufaula (Ala.) Express, from Barrancas, relates the following incident which occurred there:

"A man named Doyle, one of the workmen at the navy-yard, slipped over to Fort Pickens a few nights ago, and came very near getting in before he was discovered. He had a bundle of rat-tail files in his pocket, and says if it had not been for the sergeant holding the lantern up to his face as he was going in the door, he would have had every gun spiked in twenty minutes. He was sent back to Slemmer with the request that he be dealt with, as he did not wish to do anything that might bring about a collision, which was so much to be deprecated. Colonel Clayton sent a note in reply, by the hand of Private Bullock, (who, by the by, has since been promoted to a corporalcy,) stating that he would punish Doyle, but just at this time had t o much need of his services in casting cannon balls. The conference took place just outside the fort."

Emigrant Travel.

The emigrant travel over the Pennsylvania Railroad, during the year 1860 was somewhat greater than previous years, the total number of passengers in 1860 being 11,838 4, while in 1859 the number of seats sold was 15,701.—During 1860, of the whole number of emigrants passing over the road, 7,193 went to points west of Pittsburgh, having with them 140,807 pounds of extra baggage, the total pounds of baggage for all points 188,680.—Out of the 11,821 passengers, 6,600 were from New York, the emigrants preferring the Pennsylvania road to reach the West, in consequence of the superior facilities as compared with roads in New York.

THE CURRENCY MOVEMENT.

The attempt upon the part of our business men to throw out of circulation the depreciated paper of the banks of other States appears to be working well, and is daily gaining strength. The principle, that if a man earns a dollar, or sells a dollar's worth he is entitled to a whole dollar and not ninety-six cents, is one which is sound and correct. Let every body refuse to take depreciated paper altogether, and sell what they have to the brokers and it would soon be sent home and replaced by money at no greater discount than the cost of sending it home.

U. S. Mint.

The deposits of gold at the United States Mint from all sources for the month of March, amounted to $6,907,887 57, and from silver to $242,178 32. The total of gold and silver deposited $7,149,565 88. Copper cents received in exchange for cents of the new issue, $4,420. The gold coinage in the same time was $5,049,827.59. The silver coinage was $287,500. Cents coined, $9,000. Total number of pieces coined, 2,908,000. Total value, $5,846,326 68.

HARRISBURG LETTER.

WEDNESDAY, April 3.

House met at the usual hour. Speaker Davis in the chair.

An act to appoint a Leather Inspector for Allegheny county. This will be another loss for some of the faithful. Do the leather dealers desire this? I am of the opinion it is not called for. When will this thing have an end of creating places for the hungry. We have additional notaries added to make place for some sprig of nobility, and now we are to have another "make hay when the sun shines"—this is anold adage—then the Negroites are going it, as their days are numbered. The people will settle with faithless servants by next fall.

I owe my thanks to the talented member from Philadelphia, Mr. Leisenring, for a copy of his patriotic speech on the "Union." It is everything that might be expected from so excellent and sound a Democrat. The fact is, it is only by and through the Democracy that our national existence can be preserved. The mad schemers of the Down-Easters, with their "aiders and abetters" are the co-workers of the British, who desire to separate this Union of ours, by acts of aggression on the South. Mr. L. deserves the thanks, and indeed the gratitude of the Democratic masses, for his able expose of the attempts of the party in power to save the ends of discord and disunion.

Gov. Curtin is in Washington, giving his personal attention to the Philadelphia appointments. Mr. Gordon, member from Jefferson, without doubt the best and clearest headed man in the Legislature, will, in a few days from this time, introduce a bill to repeal the act "commuting" the tonnage tax: this will ventilate some of the promises only made to be broken.

The bill named in my letter of yesterday passed the House to-day, and goes to the Senate.

The appropriation of fifty thousand dollars to the "Farmers' High School" passed to-day. This is another wrong on the taxables. Where is the money to come from? Will "Uncle Abe" lend his blind followers.

The Dispatch of Tuesday has shown much more pluck and independence than I ever considered it possessed, in its caustic and pungent notice of the immortal four who got off the track. I fear that notwithstanding the bold and manly s and now taken by the Dispatch that it will overlook its present declarations, and be found shouldering the wooden gun and swinging the tin-cup to the tune of "Dixey." The article has done good, for the members wince under the blows, and it has stricken terror to the souls of the betrayers. It is filed away for future consideration.

A wedding extraordinary took place at Bachler's Hotel, under the supervision of Col. Hutchinson. R. Popple, who was bodyservant to Washington, and head caterer at the hotel for the last fifty years, led to the altar the blushing bride, aged eighteen. All were white gloves, and the bride was given away by the polite Dutch "who understands to a dot how those things should be done. Dr. Dyle, well known as "Diehl, attended with his staff of office. It is said to be the greatest one of the session; all the members boarding at the hotel attended, and partook of the good things so bountifully served on the interesting occasion. Col. Williams and the delegation were invited, inasmuch as they represent the banner county with its ten thousand majority for negro suffrage. The ebony groom is said to be aged 78, but through industry and prudence has made some property. This is not worse than many "white folks" do, as Popple expressed it, and "de bride" was content.

The Senate has passed the bill to legalize the suspension of specie payments until next June. The House will hesitate ere they indorse the action of the Senate. Something must be done are long, for the Legislature have not long to deliberate. The Judiciary Committee think the remedy is with the no-bolders, who can sue at any time, and forfeit the charters.

IRONSIDES.

NIGHT SESSION—WEDNESDAY.

The bill named in a former letter, relating to Washington county bonds, was this evening reported by Mr. Armstrong, from the Judiciary, with an affirmate recommendation—this gives the members from that county all they desired and contended for. This, then, is their triumph over Mr. Williams' crude notions on this everlasting subject. The people, not only in Washington, but in Allegheny, are tired out with Tom-foolery on the bond question, now when the United States Supreme Court have fully decided the question, in the matter of $400,000 procured from Allegheny city, this places the matter out of the power of all the lawyers, and their special pleadings amount to nothing. Our people have been anxious to get the opinion of Judge Roger B Taney, they must be satisfied now that the court over which the great man presides have set to rest the whole question, and all we have to do is to make the best bargain we can with the bond holders, and take the matter out of litigation and be the saving of expense, not only in courses, but costs, that are piling up at almost to the debt. Will Mr. Williams tell the taxables how they can successfully get clear of the payment:—Why they cannot even get clear of saving him a large fee for placing the Commissioners in jail.

We will see by the next election whether the voters in the county will support men who betray their interests on every occasion, and plume themselves that they will be re-nominated, as their party can boast of large majorities. It is time to rebuke knaves and traitors, and try what Democracy will do—and there is one thing most certain, that they could not do worse than the present caged delegation, who stand ready to flutter away the money of the State and county.

IRONSIDES.

The Supreme Judges.

We find the following in the Harrisburg correspondence of the Philadelphia Ledger:

On Saturday an attempt was made in the House to pass a bill taking from the Supreme Court the power of appointing Inspectors in the Eastern and Western Penitentiaries, and conferring it upon the Governor. The Judges of the Supreme Court have exercised this power during nearly thirty years, and it is not alleged that it has been abused, or that the prisons have not been economically and judiciously managed. The Court has uniformly appointed Inspectors without reference to party. But a majority of the Judges are "locofocos," and that of itself is a potential and conclusive argument with the class of minds unfortunately too numerous in this Legislature. The debate on this bill was animated and interesting. Dr. Seltzer, one of the Philadelphia members had it in charge. His argument, in favor of the passage was characteristic and luminous. It consisted in the frequent repetition of the charge of "locofocoism" on the part of the Judges. His reasoning commenced and ended with his assertion. It amounted to demonstration to his mind, and he was at a loss to conceive why it was not to be conclusive with every other good Republican. He was assisted by Mr. Thomas Williams, of Allegheny, whose chronic hostility to the Supreme Court has rendered him ridiculous.

Mr. Armstrong bore the brunt of the debate against the passage of the bill. He denounced the party spirit which seeks to gather every little splinter and rivulet of political power, and defended the Judges from the assaults of Mr. Williams, who, he said, had come to the Legislature filled with malignity against the Supreme Court. He showed that the Judges had not been controlled by political considerations in the appointment of Prison Inspectors, and that their appointees had discharged their duties with fidelity. His remarks were so pointed and forcible that they rather shamed the narrow partizan spirit that was seeking to overturn and reproach the established order of things for the sake of a morsel of political power. The House finally adjourned while the bill was still pending; but it will not be surprising if it should yet be driven through under the party lash.

By the way, it is well known that Mr. Williams came here for the express purpose of impeaching the Judges of the Supreme Court. This idea has been abandoned, and it is now contemplated to remove them by a two-thirds vote of each House. The charge against the Judges is, that they did not think as Mr. Williams did on the subject of railroad bonds, and decided that the county of Allegheny was liable for its debts. The Legislature may not gratify Mr. Williams by the removal of the Judges, but he should have an opportunity of denouncing these "judicial oligarchs," if only for the amusement it will afford.

Etiquette of Advertising.

A servant recently advertised for a situation, and the wife of a merchant sent to make inquiries about her. The girl called at the house of the inquirer the next morning, and apologized for so doing, stating that she was passing through the street and thought she would call. "I sent for you," said she, "and I thought, of course, you would come." "No, marm," replied the girl, "when a lady advertises for a place, it is expected that the person wanting her services will call. This is the etiquette of advertising!"

Stirring News from Washington.

(From a Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, April 3—Startling rumors prevail here to day. The members of the Cabinet and General Scott were hastily summoned together this morning, and a long consultation was held at the White House. Exciting reports of the probable cause of this sudden action are flying about the streets, and it is generally believed that important despatches have been received from Major Anderson concerning the condition of Fort Sumter.

The concentration of United States troops is going on. Two companies have just been ordered from Washington to Fort Hamilton, in New York harbor, and it is understood that a force of two thousand men is to be immediately stationed at points on the seaboard within twenty-four hours march of the federal capital.

The war steamers Powhattan and Minnesota have been ordered into service, and will be made ready for sea immediately.

It is believed here that the troops and vessels thus put in motion are destined for Fort Pickens, and that they will leave for that post by the end of the week.

These sudden movements indicate that the Administration is about to inaugurate a new policy, and the excitement here increases hourly.

Delegates to the Virginia State Convention, who arrived here last night, report that the Convention will adopt an ultimatum for the consideration of the border States to morrow

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, April 3—1 P. M.—I have just learned that the Cabinet is considering the question of reinforcing Fort Sumter, and that a final decision is to be made to-day. This news confirms the rumor stated in my earlier despatch. The Cabinet is still in session, its deliberations having already occupied some hours.

Captain Fox, late of Fort Sumter, has arrived here.

Italy.

The Italian Parliament, in responding to the speech of Victor Emanuel, tells him that it trusts in him as an Italian King and a valiant soldier, significantly adding that its thoughts are sorrowfully turned towards unhappy Venice, that Italy anxiously aspires to the possession of her city of Rome, and that every measure calculated to increase the armaments will be hailed with satisfaction by the Italian people.

At Rome, on the 18th ult., a conc story was held, at which the Pope had an opportunity of expressing himself upon the present position of Italy and the Papacy. He defended the Papal government from the charge of being opposed to civilization, and declared that it only opposed the pretended modern civilization which persecuted the church and trampled justice under foot. He stated that he would himself have spontaneously granted all concessions, and would have gladly abided by the counsels of the Catholic powers, but that he could not receive the advice or submit to the unjust demands of a usurping power.

A Cool Proceeding.

Lately a rich Frenchman of Paris, ran off with the fascinating wife of an American gentleman, to Switzerland. The unfortunate husband, instead of following up the abscending parties, installed himself immediately, in a magnificent chateau, owned by his rival, and wrote him the following letter as an explanation of the extraordinary step he had taken: "You have appropriated my wife, and I have taken possession of your chateau. I hope you will have an agreeable journey in the land of William Tell, although it is somewhat cold during the winter in the midst of the Helvetian glaciers. My wife, I hope, is taking lessons de chant. I have had your favorite hot-house of oranges removed, because it obstructed my view of the beautiful little lake. I think that you will appreciate my position, while you are enjoying your own

From the Rio Grande.

There is important news from the Rio Grande. Gen. Ampudia, with three thousand Mexicans, was at last accounts within sixty miles of Brownsville. The Texans report that his object was to plunder Brownsville and Matamoras, and pillage generally. It is also reported that Ampudia has aroused the Mexicans with the design of reannexing Texas to Mexico. He announces that as the federal government no longer supports Texas, now is the time to retake her. The Texans were preparing to repel the invaders.

"NOTHING on earth can smile but man," says Beecher. And the Hartford Times replies: "H. Ward, you're right. Nothin'—nothin' on earth can smile but man. Flowers have cups, but they can't crook the elbow. They can't smile. That's what's the matter. Birds, also, can't come in neither, too. They have beaks, but no beakers. What do they know about

What do they care about Juleps? Not a straw. Their only idea of a cocktail is a bunch of feathers. No, a smile is 'the prerogative o' man'—of man with a sixpence in his breeche'—or, at least, three cents."

The Supreme Judges.

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"The resignation of Mr. Williams, of Allegheny, in reference to the removal of the Judges of the Supreme Court, will be offered this week if an opportunity presents itself. One result, at least, will follow, i. e., a startling speech, containing all the 'points' which the Representative has been able to collect against the Court.

It is not probable that any action of Mr. Williams will depose the Judges.

ADVERTISING.

The Daily and Weekly Post, furnish the advertising public with a medium for reaching a large class of customers which can be reached in no other manner.

The spring trade is now opening, and those who wish to make the largest sales will forward their desires by advertising in the Post. Our Daily circulation is greater than that of any Democratic paper in Pennsylvania.

Virginia.

Senators Mason and Hunter, with Pryor and Garnet, of the last House of Representatives, are seconding Governor Wise in his revolutionary movements. Some go so far as to predict that a Convention, which will be called at Richmond on April 16th, will proclaim Henry A. Wise, Governor, and will place the Old Dominion under the autocratic rule of the Southern Confederacy.

No less than 1,600 steamboats run upon the Mississippi river and its tributaries. The total value of these is estimated at $60,000,000. The Mississippi drains an area of 1,200,000 square miles, washes the shores of twelve States, and from the Gulf of Florida to the source of the Missouri it is 4,500 miles in length, its average depth 60 feet, and its width over half a mile.

The Taxes of New York City.

The taxes of this city now amount to twelve millions of dollars, equal to two per cent. of the value of its real estate, or one third of the entire rental, which is about thirty-six millions. This taxation exceeds by two millions per annum the entire cost of governing Great Britain at the time of its last revolution.

THE Franklin Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, has declared a semi-annual dividend of six per cent., and an extra dividend of ten per cent., payable on or after the 11th inst., and the American Fire Insurance Co. a dividend of five dollars per share for the last six months, also to be paid on and after the 11th inst.

THE Girard House in Philadelphia was hard to keep, and seems to be still harder to get rid of. The Philadelphia papers announce the fifth sale of its furniture, containing six hundred and fifty lots.

Turned Up.

The bonds that Mr. Spinner, the recently appointed Treasurer of the United States said were abstracted, have all turned up. If Mr. Spinner had taken the trouble to inquire of those who knew anything of the business of his office, he would have learned that Mr. Guthrie, when Secretary of the Treasury, had sent them all to the Assistant Treasurer at Memphis, for the purpose of the easy collection of the interest, and saving the four per cent that had hitherto been paid for that purpose.
