Rumors were in circulation that the fort would be attacked within forty-eight hours, and it was understood that orders had been received from Montgomery to cut off Major Anderson's supplies from the city, and allow no further communication to be held with the garison.

Lieut. Gilman, who arrived at Washington on Wednesday night, direct from Pensacola, states that no supplies have been landed by the Brooklyn at Fort Pickens There are now five thousand of the Confederate States troops about the fort, all anxious for fight, and Lieut. Gilman is of opinion that it will be impossible to avoid a collision at an early day. It is true that there is an extraordinary
