Washington, April 11 .- The excitement occasioned yesterday by the calling out of the volunteer militis, to be mustered into the fed eral service, has abated, and to day four companies marched to the War Department Pand took the army cath, namely, to loar true allagiance to the United States, and serve them and obey the orders of the Prosident i the United States, and the orders of the efficient appointed over them, according to the rules and articles for the government of the sermy of the United States.

Previous to taking the cata the volunteers were informed that the obligation was for three months, unless they were sooner discharged, and an opportunity was given to such as night wish to retire; but as the men came there purposely to be mustered in they assumed the obligation accordingly. They now understand that they cannot be ordered beyond the limits of the District of Columbia, and will be continuously on duty as guards to the armories, public buildings, etc.

Not quite two hundred were accepted yesterday. At least live hundred, altegether, will doubtless be mustered in during the day Army overcoats have been plentifully distributed among them
