

THE UNION MEETING AT CITY

If any one doubts the noble loyalty of the American people to their Constitution and their Government, that individual would have had his doubts dispelled by an attendance at the Union meeting at the City Hall last night.

The stirring news of the last few days has aroused every heart to the fact that a great danger has arisen in the first and best government which the world ever saw. The news that the governments of States and the people of cities and towns were rising in their might to defend the Constitution and the laws, which have been assailed by madmen in the South, seemed to fire the hearts of all, and long before the hour for which the meeting was called, the immense hall was crowded to suffocation. The floor, the galleries, the stage was a perfect sea o unturned faces. There must have been five thousand men at that meeting, many of whom could not get inside the doors.

The hearts of this immense mass of mer seemed to beat as one heart for the Union. news, up to the hour of going to press, on the With one voice they pronounced their deci- intside page of this paper. sion that the laws and the integrity of the Government must be maintained. When the hour arrived, Mayor Wilson led upon the platform the venerable William Wilkins, whose silver hairs were welcomed mation, chosen President of the meeting, and made a few eloquent and patriotic reold man's wisdom.

a large portion of the fine bottom land on the Alleghny river, within the borough of Tarentum nearly opposite the Tarentum and Chartier's Stations, and A.V. Railroad, within an hours ride of Pritsburgh, the Pittsburgh Canai passing through the center.

There are favorable situations for steam-mills, founders, and roiling-mills, with several good water powers. Also, a brewer, saw-mill, and detached lots, improved and unimproved. Also, as accellent farm of one hundred and twenty acres, on the Tarentum property, one mile from the town, and under improvement—lease to be one of the best oil regions in the Allegheny, Valley. In the adjoining lands, several valuable oil wells have be en in successful operation for some years and wells are now going down all around.

The town of Tarentum, laid out by the subscriber, is one of the most flourehing within the circuit of Pittaburgh. The soil of the bottom and upland is of unsurpassed feruility—one acre of it ought to support a family. An opportunity is here presented to mechanics, and percons engaged in business to secure family readenous near excellent schools, and churches of various denominations. The principal school house is a splendix building, now accommodating two hundred shoi-ars. The RALE WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE TOWN $1,512,437 86 SPRING IMPORTATIONS Classes of purchasers.
