Enthusiastic Meeting at Sewickley. On Monday evening, one of the largest meetings ever convened in that place, almost sponisly gathered at the public school house, in Sewickley, to give expression to the pre-valing sentiment in respect to the state of the country. D. N. White, Esq, was called to the chair, and John Fleming, Esq, was ap-pointed Secretary. The Chair made a few remarks, stating the object of the meeting, when a committee consisting of Dr. Wm. Wood, Dr. Alexander Black, Geo. P. Budisell, Req., Wm. Harhaugh and J. E. Moody, were appointed to prepare resolutions. The report of the committee was unanimously approved of the course of the President in the present emergency, and pledged a hearty and continuous support of the Government throughout the war, until the national honor was vindicated, and the Govwhole country. Stirring addresses were made by J. W. F. White, Esq., Mr. John J. Nevin, and Mr. John Travilli, the two last young ernment obeyed and respected throughout the to do their part in fighting the battles of the country in so just a cause. The course of the Pittsburgh Post in this crisis was spoken of men, who pledged the young men of Sewickley with warm approbation by the Republican vociferously applauded. The "Star Spangled Banner" was sung, and the National Flag was unfurled amidst the strains of national music and the shouts of the large assembly. Every voter of Sewickley will most cordially sustain the Government, while it sustains the honor of that flag.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- On Monday evening, about eight o'clock, the body of an unknown man was found lying on the track of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago R R, about half way between Penn street and the bridge, with both legs severed from the body, and otherwise shockingly mangled. It was discovered by an employee of one of the trains, who happened to get off his train at that place. The body was removed to the receiving office, and although there was quite a number of persons present and one of the President's call for volunteers; recompany the call for volunteers and the cal number of persons present, no one was able to recognize it, nor is it known what train passed him. He was apparently about 80 or 85 years of age. An inquest was held on the body yesterday morning, but nothing additional could be ascertained. It was removed to the office of Mr. Trovillo, undertaker, where it will remain a short time for identification. It is supposed by some that he had their office to the same of th keys, including a large one, which undoubt. edly belonged to a safe, were found on h
