Meeting of the Safety Committee. At three o'clock on Friday afternoon the committee of public safety met at the Merchants' Exchange.
Dr. Gazzam, from the powder committee reported that they had received a dispatch from the Secretary of War, desiring them to graphed to W. G. Wells, Mayor of Wellsville: "You are right; continue to hold and guard the powder." Soon after he received a Soon after he received a dispatch stating that the shippers had ordered the powder back to Pittsburgh, and asking if he should let it go. In connection with Dr. Geo. McCook, he replied: "No, don't move powder on orders of any persons except the port of those glorious institutions under which Pittsburgh Committee of Safety or Secretary our country has attained a growth and or more Spare no expense to guard it where it is." This action was signified to Secretary Cameron by telegraph, and the desires of the War Department asked for. No reply had yet been received. A communication from several gentlemen desirous of organizing a cavalry company for ion, was referred to the committee on home defence. It was subsequently r
