

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE OF KENTUCKY, will meet at the CHERRY HOTEL, on WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Daily Post.

THE WAR OF SECTIONS.

The contest which has now commenced between the two great sections of this republic—the Northern and Southern—the free and the slave States—may be a long one, but its result is not doubtful. The power of the Government and of law is on one side, the weakness of unresisting rebellion and lawless usurpation of power on the other. The Army and navy of the Government are on one side; the levies of a new organization on the other. The capital of the North is on one side, gigantic in its proportions, compared with that of the South, on the other. The sympathies, the hearts, the honor, the courage, and the personal property of nineteen millions of men are arrayed in the attitude of war against the seceded States. The North has a population of five millions, the South has the regular army, the shipyards, and the control of the largest capital. The South has a hastily organized army of brave, but untrained men. The whole North is adding its thousands to the nucleus which the regular army forms, and placing at the command of veteran, tried, and patriotic officers, who have been trained to the service of their country. Where the odds are such, who can doubt where the banner of victory will rest.

WAR ITEMS.

The Board of Directors of the Bank of New Orleans, on Tuesday, received to take $100,000 of the Confederate State Loan. No says the Delta.

President Davis of the Confederate States, has issued a proclamation inviting privates to take service with the revolutionaries. It is reported that several voices are now fitting out New Orleans for privates.

A dispatch from New Orleans to the Herald states that the military situation at Fort Pickens remains unchanged, and that Gen. Clark, who had just arrived from there, said no attack would be made upon Fort Pickens for ten days.

Both branches of the Wisconsin Legislature have passed a bill to place the Nation on a war footing. It provides for raising, on the authority of the Governor, six thousand troops to be mustered into the service of the United States; for issuing $100,000 in State bonds bearing six per cent interest, payable in ten years.

THE HOME GUARD.

We find that our citizens are fully aware of the importance of home military organizations, and that they are not only protecting their own lives and property in case of necessity, but of lending aid to the neighboring border counties in case a contingency should arise where we may deem it wise to render our services. If this war goes on it is not impossible nor improbable that there may be some fighting to do near home. Let us be ready for any and all emergencies. Those whose age may prevent their advancing into the regular army—young men and boys—will find great propriety, organization, and discipline in the formation of companies, procure arms and equipments, and drill so as to be ready for service. The Committee of Public Safety are taking the necessary measures to secure the organization of an effective Home Guard.

HON. WILLIAM WILKINS.

The snows of winter have silvered the head of this distinguished gentleman, but they have not dimmed his eye nor taken from his great heart one particle of his patriotism. In the midst of the present excitement, he is daily in the city and at the head of the Committee of Public Safety is drawn from his apartment for several days, such calm, wise counsel, such apt and such prompt action as the necessities of the case require. The evening of his life, like his manhood's vigor, is being devoted to his country's welfare. All honor to the brave old man!

THE FIRMEN.

We observe by the New Orleans India, that the firmen of New Orleans have organized a brigade with order, and a regular discipline for home defense. Let our own firmen make an organization of a similar character. They are as brave a body of men as can be found anywhere. Many from their ranks have already volunteered to serve under their country's flag, and those who stay at home should be ready for such service as may be required of them.

THE COUNTRY RISING.

Great events crowd upon us so fast that we have scarce room for details, much less for discussion. The whole North, East and West, is fired with a perfect blaze of patriotism and determined courage. Everywhere the call for troops to support the Government has been obeyed with the most untiring alacrity, and the most unbounded enthusiasm pervades all classes in coming forward to tender their services.

KENTUCKY.

The Louisville Courier, of Wednesday, says:—
"The military feeling in the State is increasing, and hundreds are preparing for the conflict which cannot be distant. Many men enlisted yesterday in companies that contemplate joining the Southern Army—and this is only the beginning. If the Confederate States send 50,000 men, Kentucky will furnish them, and it is necessary, five and twenty thousand; Kentucky's blood is up, and the question is, who will stay at home?"

DETROIT.

The Journal, which left this city on Thursday evening, was detained at Alloway for several hours, by an accident on the road. They were accompanied by a full company, and proceeded on their way.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

It is most gratifying to witness the unanimity and spirit of patriotic brotherhood which all classes of this community are uniting in the great cause of their country. Neither politics, religion, nor nationality now influences the thoughts or actions of any one. The Stars and Stripes are now the banner of every American citizen. Past errors and differences of opinion are forgotten and forgiven. Men join hands who never joined hands before and pledge their lives to their country.

THE PROSS.

The Press, like the people, whose opinions it represents, is devoted to the cause of national freedom and with all its great power, sustains the Administration in its measures to preserve the national honor. An act which would be considered to excite ill feeling is widely reprobated by the newspapers of this city. The duty of the citizen is urged upon all.

LETTERS.

LETTERS FROM THE SOUTH. We have received from the South, for the first time, a letter from a Southern gentleman, and it is a most interesting one. It is a letter from a gentleman who has been in the South for some time, and who has seen the results of the war. He writes that the South is in a state of great excitement, and that the people are ready to do or die for their country.

HARRISBURG LETTER.

HARRISBURG, April 15. The act defining treason was considered. Mr. Speaker Davis contended for the restoration of the third section, which compels officers and others to take the oath to protect and defend the Constitution. This would be unnecessary, for it is not a new act, but an old one, and it is not a new act, but an old one, and it is not a new act, but an old one.

MISSOURI AND VIRGINIA MONEY AT PAR.

Message from the Governor of bills signed by the House, and he denied the power of the Governor to dismiss officers without a Court Martial. To this Mr. Davis replied warmly. The bill passed.
