

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE... CHAIRS HOTEL, on WEDNESDAY, April 24th...

The Daily Post. TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 23.

LET JUDGMENT RULE THE HOUR.

These are exciting times, and every word and every act of every man should be weighed. Let there not be too many words...

THE WAR NEWS.

The city was mainly without news yesterday other than rumors, the telegraphic information having been cut off, the lines being in control of the authorities.

THE BARKS CALLED UPON.

It has been found by the Committee of Safety necessary to procure arms for home defense. As will be seen by the published proceedings of the Committee a collection has been passed requesting the banks of the city to place $25,000 at the disposal of the Committee for the purpose of arming the citizens.

A NOBLE ACT.

Read the following: PORT FERRY, April 21st, 1861. Mr. J. P. Barr, Dear Sir—In this great impending crisis of our beloved country...

ALL HONOR TO THE WOMEN.

The women of our city are brave and patriotic. They support their husbands, their sons, and their loved ones for the war with proud and flashing eyes. They encourage them by every means in their power.
