Maj. Anderson in Philadelphia.

At the reception in Philadelphia on Saturday, Maj. Anderson was presented to Mayor Henry, in Independence Hall, by Mr. Cuyler, The Mayor then addressed the distinguished guest in a speech of welcome. He alluded to he tender of the hospitalities of the city to Col. Anderson, and declared that the tender was the unanimous feeling of the citizens of Philadelphia. It did not become him to dwell at length on those glorious scenes through which the distinguished guest had passed, and which had made a nation's heart throb with ratitude; but he could at least thank him for bravery of that loyal band who had fought so gloriously in repelling the shameful assault of gloriously in repelling the shameful assault of a rebel host. That gallantry was the opening of this important era which we have now entered upon, and it was its most important event; and however your country may employ your services, honorable and imperishable renown will be your reward, with the multitude. nown will be your reward, with the multitudinous blessings of a grateful people. It is proper, in this connection, to say that we have deemed it our duty, under the charge of this Honorahappy to be able to state, not only that we are the existence of any treasonable purpose in any quarter of our district, but also that in every county, township and village, there is an earnest love for the American Union, and a deep felt anxiety for its preser-

United STATES DISTRICT COURT.—Before Hon. Wilson McCandless. May 11th, 1861.

James Copper, of Lawrence county, was placed on trial for making and uttering coun terfelt United States coin. The prosecution consisted chiefly of the testimony of the officers as to his arrest and the implements and coin found upon him. For the defense, Mr. Purviance attempted to show that the articles had been in a carpet sack belonging to the notorious Dr. Webb, who lost or had it sto-len from him in the vicinity of Copper's place of residence, and that they afterwards fell into defendant's possession. The jury found a ver-dict of guitty, and Judge McCandless sentencd Copper to three months in the Penitentiary. The cause of this elemency is the feeble condition of Copper, who has been in prison since November last, and seems almost dead now. A DISHONEST HUSBAND .- On Saturday a
