

50 PER YEAR, CHANGE OF TERMS.

From and after this date the terms of the Daily Post will be six dollars per year in advance, and to subscribers by the week 12 cents instead of 10 as heretofore.

TO AGENTS AND READERS. As some of our readers abroad have complained that the price for half-price is too much, we can only state our price is one cent to agents, and all we ever receive.

WE HAVE DISPATCHED TWO CORRESPONDENTS and a boy to the seat of war, who promised faithfully to keep out of harm's way during the shock of arms and trumpet-blast, and not to join a rifle company after the battle.

THE NEW YORK TIMES maintained a correspondent in the rear of the Federal army in Italy. The London Times in the Crimea and now in this country, but we have sent two on this hazardous and might be some people most dangerous mission.

THE WAR MOVEMENT. The troops have moved upon Baltimore, and a general movement is making for the concentration of the troops in and around the National Capital.

THE VIRGINIA. We have a terrible state of affairs here, the hissing, howling storm of blood, desolating war is being brought to our ears every day.

WAR NEWS.

Wigfall announces that there are one hundred thousand Southerners on their way to Washington, that Mr. Lincoln and Cabinet will be captured and they retraced before the middle of June, and that as for Wigfall he intends to winter in Philadelphia.

The latest news from Montgomery is that the Confederate Congress, in secret session, were making arrangements for a vigorous prosecution of the war, and for putting the South in a state of complete defense.

The preparations of the government at Washington are most vigorous and extensive. It is sending agents to Europe to purchase a number of modern gunboats of light draught to complete the blockade.

It is stated that there are 15,000 troops in Tennessee, Kentucky, and in reference to the design a resolution was introduced into the Kentucky Legislature requesting the Governor to sign a proclamation prohibiting the passage of armed men through Kentucky for any purpose.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA. FRIEND BARR. We have a terrible state of affairs here, the hissing, howling storm of blood, desolating war is being brought to our ears every day.

BLOCKADE OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

Important Circular from the Treasury Department. The following is a copy of the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the shipment of goods to the States in rebellion.

On the 10th day of April, 1861, the President of the United States, by proclamation, declared the ports of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas under blockade, and on the 27th of the same month, by another proclamation, declared the ports of Virginia and North Carolina also under blockade, since which proclamation this Department has received reliable information that attempts are frequently made to furnish arms, munitions of war, provisions and other supplies to persons and parties in these States in violation of the constitutional authorities of the Union.

It is the duty of the Treasury Department to see that no such attempts are made, and to see that no such supplies are furnished to persons and parties in these States in violation of the constitutional authorities of the Union.

Col. Thomas A. Scott's Washington.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post reads a just tribute to Col. Thomas A. Scott, Vice President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. We quote:—

It is almost impossible to over estimate the value of the services of Thomas A. Scott, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to the Government. He was sent for by Mr. Cameron to put the route from Philadelphia to Washington via Annapolis in good order.
