WATERPROOF CLOTH FOR SOLDIERS' OVER-COATS.—Twenty thousand tunics, rendered waterproof and yet porous, were served out French army during the late war with Russia. They were prepared after the follow ing recipe:
Take 2 lbs, 4 oz. of alum, and dissolve i 10 gallons of water; in like manner dissolve the same quantity of sugar of lead in a similar quantity of water, and mix the two togethe They form a precipitate of the sulphate o lead. The clear liquor is now withdrawn, and the cloth immersed for one bour in the solution, when it is taken out, dried in the shad washed in clean water and dried again. The preparation enables the cloth to repe water like the feathers of a duck's back, and yet allows the perspiration to pass somewhat freely through it, which is not the case with gutta percha or India rubber cloth.

WOULDN'T LET HIM Go .- An Irish lady residing in East Wheeling, whose husband loined the Rough and Ready Rifles, went to the Hose House where the "sogers" were being drilled, on Friday last, and demanded tree her husband. On being refused admission she pitched into the doorkeepers with the vigor of an Amazon and put two of them hors d compat in short order. She then advanced rapidly until she stood face to face with her bould soger boy" and desired him in language which he was unwilling to disregard to return to his domestic duties and resign the pride, pomp and circumstance of war. MONTGOMERY, May 6 .-- Congress met o-day at noon, and was opened with prayer. The Journals of the preceding day were ead and confirmed.

After the call of States. Mr. Brooke, of Mississippi, presented to ordinance passed by the Virginia State onvention, adopting the provisional contitution of the Confederate States of America; and also the resolution passed by the same Convention, authorizing the ap pointment or election of Commissioners to his Congress. Mr. Brooke said that Messrs. Hunter, Rives, Burkenbrough, and Cameron had been selected as Com nissioners, and that two of those gentlemen, Messrs. Burkenbrough and Staples, were now present, and he desired that they be invited to take seats in the Convention Mr. Rhett, of South Carolina, moved that Congress go into secret session, and that the Virginia Commissioners, now present be invited to remain in the Hall.

This motion prevailed, and Congress went into secret session. The only business transacted in secret session, and which has been made public. is the admission of Virginia into the gov ernment of the Confederate States. WASHINGTON, May 18.—A gentleman who has just arrived here from Richmond, says that eight thousand rebel troops are now stationed in that city, and that fifteen thousand other troops are scattered through Virginia. He also reports that an attack will be made from the direction of Harper's Ferry upon the United States at the Relay House, and that Gen. Lee, the commander of the Virginia forces, threaten Western Maryland and Pennsylvania from the same point. These are mere reports, and do not seem to be confirmed. Reliable information from Jefferson City says that nearly all the objectionable features of the military hill, which had been debated were investigating the legal bearings of this action, in order to guide the Government in amended; but when the news of the capture of Camp Jackson reached the city, the amendment was immediately re-considered and the original bill passed both Houses by large maorities. No secession ordinance has been brought before either House, nor was such an ack contemplated. The Legislature has passed, and the Governor signed a bill providing for a military fund to arm the State. This fund will include the receipts from assessments for the years of 1860 and 1861, after the regular expenses of government have been paid. ALBANY, May 13.-Adam Van Allen has
