A Poem by the late Gen. Lamar. A wanderer in Nicaragua, recently passing through he village of Pueblo Nuevo, discovered a relic of Gen Mirabeau B. Lamar, late American Minister to that country, in the form of a poetical effusion, dedicated to the belie of a posada-the "Daughter of Mendoza :" O | lend to me, sweet nightingale,

Your music by the fountain And lend to me your cadences, O river of the mountains That I may sing my gay brunstte diamond spark, in coral set, Gem for a prince's coronet-The daughter of Mendoza

How brilliant is the morning star The evening star-how tender; The light of both is in her eyeseir softness and their splendo But for the lash that shades their light They were too dazzling for the sight, And when she shuts them-all is night The daughter of Mendoza.

Oh! ever bright and beauteous one, Bewildering and beguiing; The lute is in thy silver tones, The rainbow in thy smiling: And thine is, too, o'er hill and dell, weet daughter of Mendors.

What though, perchance, we meet no mo What though too soon we sever; Thy form will float like emerald light, elore my vision ever; For who can see, and then forget, The glovies of my gay brunette? Thou art too bright a star to set, Sweet daughter of Mendoza.
