We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Bloom Foon. It is an entirely new discovery, and must hib be contounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the closed, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains: Levell those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or aliment, take of this Hood. From any the restored to health. We notice that show from any the restored to health. We notice that show of the world-renowned Dr. Earon's larantine booking, which, every mother should have. It is said to contain no paregoric or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be invaluable for all infantile complaints. It is sho said that it will allay all pain, and soften the gums in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and nurses, who have endured anxious days and sleepless nights, procure a supply anxious does
