BOY KILLED BY A STREET CAR .- On Thursday evening about six o'clock, a lad named James Carl, aged about six years, son of Thomas Carl, residing in Marshal's court, off Pine street, Fifth Ward, was run over by car on the Citizens' Passenger Railway, near he corner of Pine and Penn streets and i ured in a most shocking manner. Both legs were terribly mutilated—the left being crus through, and the right broken and stripped of a portion of the fiesh. One of the legs was amputated, and the child died yesterday morning st six o'clock. Coroner Bostwick held an i quest, and the jury found that the deceated came to his death by being accidently run over by street car, No. 9, while the car was going at its usual speed. They also earnestly recommend that a regulation be made requiring street and railroad cars to come to a walk when pass-ing each other. This would, the jury believe,
