DEATH OF A VOLUNTEER -On Wednesday afternoon John H. Heenan, a member of Company D, (Washington Infantry, 3d, Captain Mays,) Thirteenth regiment, died of dysentery at Camp Scott. The body was coffined and placed in charge of an escort consisting of not be known until to-more w, as some of the Sargeant Major A. P. Oallow, Lieutenant districts are distant. McGregor of Company I, (Shield Guards,) and Lieutenaut Loomis, Sargeant Joseph S. Parker, and privates David Scarem, Henry Miller, Wm. B. Smith and John Davaux, all scort by the noon train on the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday. The Pittsburgh Rifles, Captain Smith, who had been detailed for the duty, were in waiting at the depot, and fold the body to the residence of the stepfather of deceased, on Colwell street, in the Sixth Ward, from whence it will be interred at two o'clock this afternoon. The escort will consist of two companies from the Erie regiment and the Pittsburgh Rifles, Capt. Smith, with such companies of Home Guards as wish to join. The cortege will leave the resider of Hazel Ray, Colwell street, at two o'clock, and proceed to the Allegheny Cemetery.

THE NEW CAMP.—The new camp at Hulton, which it is proposed to call "Camp McCall," is being well laid out, and the erecion of barracks has been commenced. These will be 75 by 18 feet, each affording ample accommodations for one company. Between each row is a commodious street. The barracks all have a partition running through the centre, the entire length. By this arrangement, one half of the company will be quartered on the right, and the other on the left of the street, immediately opposite each other.

On each side of the restition, the harment in the large of the restition that the restition that the large of the restition that the restition will doubtless make the camp as comfortable as possible. It is scarcely probable that the camp will be ready for use before Monday or Tuesday of next week. As soon as the troops are moved the Allegheny Valley Railroad will afford ample facilities to citizens wishing to visit the camp, by trains running up in time for regimental and dress parades. We are infor regimental and dress parades. We are informed that one regiment will be left at the BODY RECOVERED -The body of an unknown man was found floating in the Ohio river at Steubenville, on Tuesday. From the ppearance of the body, the deceased was supposed to be about thirty years of age, and had black hair and moustache. He had on a cassi. mere dress coat, white vest and jean pants. In his pockets he had a sheep-skin drum head, one omnibus and four railroad tickets. The tickets were stamped at Jeffersonville, Ind., May 16th, 1861. There were also found upon the person of the deceased, a railroad ticket, for fare from Steubenville to Pittsburgh, and from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia—one ticket from Philadelphia to New Brunswick, and one from New Brunswick to New York. The cause of his death was unknown, but the supposition is that it was accidental drowning.

THE CAPTURE OF REBELS AT GRAPTON DE-NIED.—For a day or two past the rumor has been current here, as well as in Brownsville and Morgantown, that the government troops had arrived at Grafton, captured four hundred of the rebels there and dispersed the rest, a thausand or more. Advices by letter and otherwise yesterday contradicts the report.
