OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A Valuable Invention. Mr. A. H. Rowand, of Allegheny City, the newly invented "Railroad Car Buffer," with coupling and draw-bar attached, designed to resist and overcome the frequent shocks and company of Scotch volunteers to resist and overcome the frequent shocks and jars to railroad cars, and to diminish the shock in collisions. The invention has already received the approval of many railroad officers. and an evidence of its applicability to the end designed is that it has, although only patented President and Secretary of War, who commison the lat of January last, been adopted by sioned him a captain in the regular service.

The invention consists in providing within a ranged as to operate with a lateral pressure on opposite sides of a wedge-shaped bar, and so arranged as to allow this bar to press its wedged shaped end between the opposing and lateral pressure presented by the springs, the resistance of the main springs being increased by elliptic or other springs placed on the country sides of the metallic springs and committed to jall to answer a charge of assault committed to jall to answer a charge of assault outer sides of the metallic springs, and be-tween them and the sides of the box or case charged with flourishing a knile on the same charged with flourishing a knile on the same in which the whole is secured The wedgended bar operates on the main springs in its backward as well as its forward mot The value of the improvements combined in this buffer has been fully proven by experiant and actual trial on railroad cars. into the spring only 31 inches, not reaching its principal resistance, thus proving an almost ossibility to overcome the elasticity of this or. The experiment was conducted by W.

One of the chief advantages claimed by the in cold weather, becomes rigid, and makes its nated that the resistance offered by one of these buffers is five hundred tons. Thus, a train of six passenger cars, average weight 123 tons, running at 30 miles an hour (44 feet per second) will have a force of 5,412 tons, while the resisting power with their buffers attached at each end of each car would be 6,000 tons, sufleaving an overplus resistance of nearly 600 Our railroad men have long felt the need of such a powerful instrument as this, and it has doing well. ived the endorsment of the most skilful en gineers and railroad men, who acknowledge merit, while the Scientific American, speak ing of the invention says: "The inventor claims to have the best Buffer ever invented, obvious to all who have examined it. As the terms upon which railroads can have the right same day to use it are moderate, and it can be r railroad work shop, we expect to see it soon in general use, and so far as our observation goes

THE "UNION" OVERBOARD. - By the following, from Saturday's Baltimore American, it will be seen that the "Union" gun, recently shipped from this city, now lies (by accident or design) embedded in the mud of Baltimo. Of coure it can be raised, but it will be a difficult and laborious task:
"In the edition of yesterday, it was stated that preparations were making with a view of oing the great gun "Union" on a schooner be conveyed to Fortress Monros. Accord Workmen were also engaged with the necesints to effect its removal from the pier in which it had been placed to the schoon-

Large pieces of timber, called skids. o sufficient strength, as supposed, to bear the weight of the gun, had been extended from five o'clock, the work was commenced, and the aded in moving the penderous gun near the side of the soboo skids broke in two, causing the immense gun to fall into the water, which at that point is over twelve feet in depth. The schooner careened over, but after being relieved of the great weight, soon righted, having part of her rails and stanchions broken. The gun can be recovered, though it will require immense nachinery to raise it. The weight of the gun, as previously stated, is 52,000 pounds." Court of Quarter Sessious. Before Judges McClure, Adams and Parks. MONDAY, June 10, 1861. rom Indianapolis to the Cincinnati Comme There are still two regiments here of the first and four of the second levy, all well armed and equipped, and they will compare pecting marching orders soon. The twelfth ragiment State troops, Col. John W. Wallace, paraded the streets yesterday. Four weeks takin ago these men were at their numes—now they firm are ready for marching orders, fully equipped and well drilled. Quarter-master Vajin left for New York and Montreal last night to close a contract for four thousand Minie rifles. Over one hundred and one companies have been organized under the new militia law, being armed and equipped in good style. By a special telegram to the Commercial, dated Grafton, we learn that the Eleventh Indiana Zouaves passed through to Cumberland to day, where they will join General Patterson's command. Intelligence from Chest Mountain Pass reports the rebels entrenched there. A few are at Beverly, and some in camp at Huttonsville, but demoralized, and some companies are disbanding. They report that ten thousand abolitionists came down apon them at Phillipi, and that they cut their way through, killing one thousand men. They admit at Beverly that they lost thirty men. A prominent Secessionist was shot on Friday, in Randolph county, while warning Union men to obey Governor Letcher's instructions.

A special dispatch from Grafton to the Cincinnati Gazette says: - General Morris has issned the following proclamation, in connection with that of General McClellan; Headuarters of the U. S. Volunteers of Western Virginia, Grafton, June 8th, 1861. Virginians: In issuing the above proclamation of the Commanding General department of Ohio, I have now the pleasure of announcing that we have routed and completely discomfitted the Secessionists in arms at Phillippi. Their forces are demoralized, and desertions numerous, and, panic stricken, the remnant have taken refuge in passes in the mountains. Western Virginia is free from the enemies to her freedom and peace. In full confinence of your ability and desire to protect yourselvess I now call upon you to come to the support of your
