Arrest of a Murderer.

On Wednesday last, June fith; as a colore

barber, named J. R. B. Henderson, was riding along a newly Macadamized road in the vicine ity of Brookville, Jefferson county, he was oberved by one John Hamilton, a worthless fel low who has long been a hanger on about this city, alternating with the country districts.

The latter, out or pure maliciousness, seized a large stone lying upon the road, and hurled it at Henderson. It struck him upon the head, and coming as it did with crushing force, fractured the skull and penetrated the brain. Henderson was taken home, and, after some days of pain and suffering, died on Monday, the 10th inst. A Coroner's inquest was held and the jury found that deceased had come to his death by a wound inflicted by a stone thrown ville, was despatched to this city to arrest son being the liberal donors. and lodged in the tombs.
