OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

MR. HOLT'S LETTER We have printed a few extra copies of Mi Holt's Letter, and can now supply the demand for them, which we were not able to do on Saturday and Monday.

IMPATIENT FOR A FIGHT. The intense desire which seems to exist in this community for a battle to come off is a strange anomaly of human nature. Almost every man we meet is impatient for a fight to take place between the forces of the Government and the rebel troops. Many seem to forget that this war is a great under sider the unusual degree of preparation ed by the Illinois delegation to respond in bewhich is necessary for such a war. Our troops Mr. Lincoln's nomination, in which they who might be so employed. I really beare not yet under thorough military discipline. The appliances of a field campaign are not ready for them. They are not in that complete state of readiness which is absolutely necessary to insure success. There is an old adage which says, "The more haste the less speed"-and this should be considered by those impatient ones who are "itching for a fight." Suppose a great battle should be precipitated and we should b beaten-what then? The maledictions of the people upon those who manage the war would be tremendous. It seems to us that those who get up every morning expecting know much about war," and don't consider the nature of the war in which we are now engaged. This war is to save the Union, not to destroy it. Its great aim is to reunite the dissevered sections of the Union in peace and harmony. The Governmen undoubtedly depends greatly upon a reac tion of sentiment in the rebellious states in favor of the Union, to aid them in putting an end to this internecine contest. This reaction would require time, in order that the southerners may be thoroughly convinced that the Government has the power to subject them to the wholesome action of the Constitution and the Laws, and in order rebels than on any secret suspicion that all Government desires to protect the lives and sideration at headquarters. At Washing ton and at those points where the power of the Government is seen in its efforts, there is no such haste. UNEASINESS AT WASHINGTON. From a letter published in the World appears that in despite of the assurance of the ability of General Scott, an uneasy feeling exists, and not without reason

The writter of the letter says: The feeling is based rather on the desper ate condition and determination of the upon our soldiers who have been sent into the rebel territory. This is a wise and humane policy. There is no reason for slaughter if slaughter can be avoided. Thus far Gen. Scott has pursued a course which has kept the rebels in cleck, with but little loss of life. That this rebellion will be crushed out—that the Union will be preserved—we have not the slightest doubt. If it is found necessary to whip the rebels into submission the visit not better.
