These can be adjusted Third Michigan in Congresses and Conventions But there | Co. K. 9th Regimes t. do. can be no compromise with rebels with arms in their hands.

The government desires to protect the rights of its whole people. The Constituion is broad enough to protect all. Those who have by their own acts thrown themselves from under the shadow of its agis must submit and come back before they can talk of compromise.

The "National Intelligencer" denies that the government has received any offer of compromise from Jeff. Davis or his agents. ST. MICHAEL'S SEMINARY.

This is one of the best schools in this ings are of a character to promote health and mental vigor.

The professor and teachers are all gentle men of thorough scientific knowledge and cultivated minds. They understand the art of teaching in all its details.

This was manifested to us from an attendance upon the concluding exercises of the Seminary which took plack on Tuesday afternoon. The examinations and exercises in English and Latin studies, in Math ematics, History, Geography and the Modern Languages, gavea mple evidences that the pupils were well taught. The Essays. Orations and Poems, combined with delightaful music, added greatly to the interest of

At a meeting of the Douglas Committee Mahington City on Friday evening, Hon. Jno. B. Haskins in the chair, Jno. J. McElhone Secretary, in pursuance of a resolution previously adopted, the Chairman appointed auxiliary committees for the several States of the Union. Committees are appointed for twenty-two States. It will be the duties of these committees to carry out the objects of the organization and they will co-operate with the friends of Judge Douglas in Illinois. The Chairman Mr. Haskins, intends addressing a circular to the individual members of the committees at an early day. The following are the gentleman appointed on the committee from Pennsylvania.
