LETTERS FROM CAMP SEPT.

CAMP SEPT., STATE ISLAND, June 30, 1861.

Dear Post—Several circumstances have transpired since my last, worthy of note.

To-day the mortality of camp life, in our Pittsburgh companies has been creating quite a sensation (O. C. of U. S. Zouave Companies) On last Tuesday, they became dissatisfied with their fare and accommodation, and after a great deal of grumbling were formed into and marched out (Philadelphia being their destination) to May 1st, at 10 o'clock, and were informed that if they were not satisfied with the arrangements, they were to be sent to Philadelphia via C. & A. Railroad, and

arrangements, they were to be sent to

arrangements, they were to be sent to

LAWRENCEVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

School closed for the year on Friday, after a searching and interesting examination during the week. On Friday from 9 to 10 o'clock, the usual examination of the closed the exercises with a picnic at the Catholic school, a pleasant location in the city. There was a large number of good things, singing and speaking. Ten prizes of valuable books were awarded to the most proficient in the grammar department. They were presented by the President of the board, the worthy Burgess of Lawrenceville, Squire McOague, with short but appropriate addresses to each-of them. They were presented by the

SOME BARRIERS. It is rumored, have been discovered about the Court House, which are now being investigated by the Controller. It is stated that certain of the Court House, which were not on the panel and did not serve at all. The matter will be brought before the Court, and it is thought that they will be removed.

COUNCILS held a special meeting this evening, with reference to the Fifth and Wood street sewer.

The Democracy of old Westmoreland have nominated Dr. Samuel Wakefield and Richard Graham for Assembly.

A new flag has been raised on the Custom House.

DEBENTURE.—Dr. O. Hill, No. 246 Penn street, attends to all branches of the Department.
