FORT KEARNEY, July 1.—We have reliable information from Denver, as follows: Denver June 25th —A secession force set out from their rendezvous, 20 miles up Cerry creek to-day, for the avowed purpose of taking forts Wise and Garland. They are well armed and equipped and expect to gain admittance to the forts by strategy, and then expect to be ped and expect to gain admittance to the forts by strategy, and then expect to be joined by a majority of the forces Inside There is much valuable property and money in the forts. The movement watched, but we are comparatively pow erless and totally without authority o

FORTRESS MONROE, P. M., June 30.—The celebrated steam gun arrived last night and Prof. Lowe was expected to day, with his, morater balloon, to reconnoitre the positions of the rebels. The "Union" guns is not yet mounted. Mr. Carnegle, an assistant of Col. Thomas A. Souts, arrived this morning from Washington, to super intend the erection of the proposed railired and telegraph. It was originally intended to connect Fortress Monroe with Newport News by means of a submarine, cable, but the line will extend overland, via Hampton, and be in operation within a week. The railroad will be built to facilitate the transportation of stores at the fortress to Hampton, and ultimately, it may be hoped, to Yorktown.

The gun boat Mount Vernon has just arrived from Newport News with two deserters from the rebels and two prissioners, all belonging to the Louisians Zoutaves. The former came into the essing at Newport News yesterday morning. They are intelligent Germans and state that having been impressed into the serivice they escaped on the first opportunity.
