WEDNING YEARS OF THE

WEDNESDAY MORNING :: TOLY 3. HANGING.—A great many people, principally stay at homes, talk very savagely and patriotically about hanging every rebel who is taken in the war, and thus indirectly assail the true policy which has so far controlled the policy which has so far controll Government in the management of pris oners. There are two sides to this question, and it is the duty of the Gov.

The power loss to hang a rebel, upon proper trial is undoubted; but, on the other hand; has extreme severity to political prisoners has ceased to be regarded with favor by the civilized world. England, and even property france, have abandoned it, and the cruelty of the king of Naples to prisoners of this character compacted Chrise tendom in hostility against him. So much for the foreign aspect of the question.

There is also a domestic view to be said taken. Extreme severity makes men desperate, not submissive. Is it desirable to give the rebels pretexts to hang them like thieves and murderers? The true policy is this. Hang as a neasure of retaliation. If the rebels murder our soldiers when they fall in seals o their hands, we will murder theirs. Hiw Phis is the true end and use of the gallows in this struggle. Gen. Scott and his rec brave troops, not the hangman, will con-
