CITY MATTERS

Sentence of the Free Concert Saloon Proprietors. In the Court of Quarter Sessions, on Friday evening, the proprietors of the free concert saloon on Southfield street, Philip Klein, of the "Maiden" and Julia Weiser, of the "Red, White and Blue" were called upon for sentence.

Judge McClure's Remarks. Judge McClure's remarks on the case of the saloon proprietors were highly interesting. He stated that he was called upon to decide the case, but he was not to be influenced by the fact that the proprietors were the only persons of their class in the city.

THE BROTHERS GENERAL. W. S. Haven, the enterprising publisher and book seller, has received a small volume, published in advance of the official report, containing the results of the last census, so far as refers to population. By this statement the public can see for the first time the extent of the increase in the number of the population of the city.

SENTENCE OF CAPT. THOMAS RODGERS FOR MANSLAUGHTER. In the Criminal Court, on Monday morning, Capt. Thomas Rodgers, convicted of manslaughter, in killing J. T. H. Vandergrift, was brought in for sentence. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for four years.

Mr. Editor:—The annual convention of the St. Francis College took place on the 24th and 25th of June last, at which attended many of the neighboring clergy, who expressed themselves highly satisfied with the proficiency of the students in science and the language.

THE FRAUDS ON THE COUNTY TREASURY. We have already briefly alluded to the fact that some heavy frauds upon the County Treasury had been discovered by our new and energetic Controller, Henry Lambert, while reconstructing the affairs of the county. The papers so far as available to have been implicated (as is believed) in these frauds are M. W. Lewis, late clerk in the Prothonotary's office, and others.
