OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

PITTSBURGH:

SATURDAY MORNING,.....JULY 13.

☞ THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE, will meet at the St. Charles Hotel, on SATURDAY, July 13th, 1861, at 10 a. m. A general attendance is earnestly requested.

By order

jy6 SAMUEL HARPER, Secretary.

THE WEEKLY POST,

In wrappers, ready for mailing, may be had at our counting-room, this morning.

A BATTLE IN VIRGINIA.

We have stirring accounts of battles and victories in Western Virginia this morning. On Thursday, at Rich Mountain, two miles from Roaring Run, the enemy to the number of about two thousand under the command of Col. Pegram, strongly entrenched, were surrounded by Gen. Rosecrantz, with portions of three Indiana Regiments and the 19th Ohio, and after a battle of one hour and a half the rebels ran, as usual. Sixty of them were killed and a large number were wounded and taken prisoners, some of whom were officers.—They left behind them six cannon, a large number of horses and wagons, camp equipage, &c. The rout of the rebels appears to have been complete.—On our side twenty were killed and forty wounded.

This is decidedly the most considerable fight since the war commenced and the result is but a foretaste of what the rebels have to expect.

This news comes from the Associated Press and we have no doubt of its correctness as to all the main points.

Below we give an account of another battle said to have been fought in Virginia. The information comes to us from such a source as to be entitled to all credit, although it is possible that both accounts may refer to the one engagement.

ANOTHER BATTLE.

We learn from a most authentic source that Gen. McClellan has performed a most brilliant achievement in Western Virginia. Having, with a large force, almost entirely surrounded a considerable portion of the rebel army, in the vicinity of Laurel Hill, he captured a large number of prisoners, horses, wagons, tents, and, equipage, &c. The remainder of the secession forces fled precipitately with a heavy loss. Gen. McClellan's forces behaved admirably and stood firm throughout. The loss of life on our side was about forty. Further particulars of this action will be anxiously looked for, as, according to the information we now have it was the most successful stroke of the campaign.

THE TAX TO SUPPORT THE FAMILIES OF THE VOLUNTEERS.

We publish this morning a most singular correspondence between Edward Campbell, Jr., Esq., and the County Commissioners, relative to the necessity of levying the tax of two mills to support the families of those who were now fighting the battle of the constitution, and laws of the country. Mr. Campbell's note is based entirely upon suppositions. "If" there is money in the treasury and "if" it can be appropriated for this purpose according to law, then he supposes no tax is necessary. The reply of the Commissioners fully answers Mr. Campbell's "suppositions," and states very clearly that the ordinary expenses of the county will absorb the present levy.

What need of argument further. The families of those who have gone to the war must be supported. The Commissioners say that the present taxation cannot raise the money, and where are the means to come from. The legislature has given the Commissioners the power to raise it by a two mill tax. The patriotism of the people of this county will not brook a refusal to levy this tax, and let the families of the volunteers suffer. The farmers are garnering the richest harvest they have had for years. Hitherto they have had an opportunity of contributing but little to the cost of this war to sustain the Union The citizens of the cities have done the most which has been done. The people of the country are not less patriotic than we are. They will pay this tax with ready hands and, sympathizing hearts for those who are fighting the battles of the Union. What need of cyphering, or of argument? The money is not in the County Treasury, so the Commissioners say, and will not be under the present levy. Who that loves his country, and has within his bosom the heart of a man, will dare to raise an objection to this levy of noble charity? The case is one for plain straight forward action, and does not need an argument based upon suppositions, to show that money is or ought to be, where the proper authorities say it is not and will not be, unless levied as proposed, and according to the authority given by the legislature.

THE CROPS.

The crops in Pennsylvania were never better than this year. The war has not hurt the farmers, and with their rich harvests to depend upon they should be willing to contribute liberally to sustain the government. Hitherto the chief expenses of the war have fallen directly upon the citizens of the cities. All through Pennsylvania the wheat crop is more than an average one, and is being harvested in good condition. The hay, although not heavy is of an unusually good quality. The corn and potatoes are somewhat backward but they look well, and the recent general showers will insure a good product. Of all kinds of produce there will be in Pennsylvania more than an average crop this year.

We are gratified to learn from his physician, Dr. A. M. Pollock, that James Herdman, Esq., who has been lying dangerously ill for some time past, is slowly recovering.

MILITARY BILLS AGAINST THE STATE.

There are in this city, probably, a couple of scores of persons who have claims against the State for subsistance and other necessaries furnished to the soldiers at the commencement of the war. These bills are most of them meritorious, and ought to be paid, and their holders send them down to Harrisburg, and are astonished that they are not paid at once.

We will endeavor to show them how they can obtain an adjustment of their claims: They all seem to forget that for the protection of the public treasury the law has prescribed certain forms, which must be complied with before those who control the State funds have any authority to pay, and they grumble because they don't get their money, when in truth the fault is their own.

In order to obtain a settlement of the bills, so hastily, and most of them so irregulary contracted at the first start of the war, a bill of items must first be made out and sworn to. This bill must state to whom, and by whose authority the value was furnished, and be accompanied by a certificate from the person giving the order, who must have had the requisite authority. Thus prepared the bill must be forwarded, if for army subsistence to the Commissary General at Harrisburg, and after having been approved by him it goes to the Auditor General's office, where each item is carefully scrutinized and, after approval here, it must be approved and signed by the Governor, when it will be paid. All this is necessary to prevent unjust and improper payment of claims which the State has no right to pay.

Those who have been complaining that their bills for boarding soldiers have not been paid, must make out regular bills of items, stating the companies to which the subsistence was furnished and the name of the commanding officer, with his certificate that he gave the order.

Bills thus certified are entitled to be paid, if they were contracted for soldiers accepted by the State, and after their acceptance. If soldiers were boarded before their acceptance, or if soldiers passing through from other States were boarded, the State of Pennsylvania is not liable for the payment of the bills.

There are persons in other parts of the State besid Pittsburgh, to whom these hints may be useful.

ATLANTIC CITY.

This beautiful place is without a rival for sea bathing. The city is situated upon an Island eight miles in length by three quarters of a mile in breadth, lying six miles from the main land. It is 60 miles from Philadelphia, or three hours and a half ride from Philadelphia. The beach at Atlantic City is nine miles in length, affording a fine drive. The atmosphere is perfectly free from fog, very light and dry and is most desirable for the invalid as well as those in search of pleasure or relaxation from business. Fish and game are found in great abundance. Independent of the bathing there are various sources of amusement and instruction, so that every visitor may pass the time pleasantly, each according to his own inclination. There are one hundred houses for accommodations for visitors, and the pleasure seeker or the person seeking rest and health may quarter himself, as best he pleases, either in the fashionable and well appointed hotel, or the quiet and retired cottage.

Communication is had with Philadelphia three times a day, the trains of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad leaving Vine street wharf daily at 7.30 A. M. and 4 P. M. John Brodhead, Esq., President of this road, through whose instrumentality mainly it has been constructed, deserves a vote of thanks from the people of Pennsylvania for establishing such a pleasant and cheap means of reaching this most delightful of watering places.

THE THREE MONTH'S MEN.

Five of the Pennsylvania Regiments now in Gen. Patterson's line, were sworn in to the service of the United States at Harrisburg, on the 20th of April, and their three month's term of service will expire on Saturday, the 20th inst. The time of nearly all the troops from Pennsylvania in Gen. Patterson's line will expire by the 26th inst. We are well informed that many of these troops will re inlist for the war, and the regiments will be filled up by new recruits. Large numbers of those who may return home will undoubtedly re-enlist after a week or two absence from the field. In the present position of Gen. Patterson's line, with a fight daily threatening, it will be found that our Pennsylvania boys will not leave the field with a battle in prospect, even when the term for which they have enlisted shall expire. As long as their country needs their services the Pennsylvania Regiments will do their duty.

BALTIMORE, under the vigorous action of Major General Banks, is resuming a condition of peace, law and order. The General has just issued a proclamation announcing the appointment of George P. Dodge Marshal of Police, in place of Kane, now under arrest. The Provost Marshal, Colonel Kenly, has retired from that position, which he temporarily occupied, and has resumed command of his regiment. The troops stationed at the different parts of the city have been withdrawn by orders of General Banks, and have retired to their several camps. This of course is a virtual abrogation of martial law which has recently existed in Baltimore, and proves that General Banks has crushed out treason there by the prompt and firm measures he has adopted.

FOUR months since the sloop of war Wyoming left the Pacific station for the east. Since her departure nothing has been heard of her.

Bounty Land Grants to Soldiers.

The following is the bill reported in the House of Representatives by Mr. Holman, of Indiana, granting bounty land to certain officers and soldiers who have been engaged or shall hereafter be engaged in the military service of the United States:

Be it enacted, &c., That each commissioned and non-commissioned officer, musician and private, who shall have been in the military service or shall have volunteered or enlisted and been regularly mustered into the military service of the United States, since the 12th day of April, 1861, and shall have been or shall be in such service for a period of not less than sixty days, and shall have received or shall receive an honorable discharge, shall be entitled to receive a warrant from the Department of the Interior for one hundred and sixty acres of land.

Section second grants one hundred and sixty acres of land to the widow or minor children of any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private, who may be killed or die in the service, provided he had been mustered into service for a period of not less than three months.

Section third provides that the land warrants shall be assignable only subsequent to the delivery to the person to whom issued, and such assignment to be valid must be personally executed by such person.

Section fourth provides for the location of such warrants on any public lands duly surveyed and subject to sale.

Section fifth extends the benefit of the act to the militia or volunteers of any State or Territory who shall have been mustered into the actual service of the United States, provided that such militia or volunteers shall have been actually armed and equipped by such State or Territory, and in the actual pay thereof, for the purpose of sustaining the authority of the United States.

Section sixth gives three hundred and sixty, instead of one hundred and sixty acres of land to every officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private, or to his widow or minor children, who shall have been mustered into the service prior to August 1, 1861, and continue in such service until the military forces of the United States, except the regular army, shall be disbanded, or who shall be previously honorably discharged on account of wounds received or sickness incurred in such service

Section eight applies the provisions of the act to officers and seamen in the navy within the periods and subject to the limitations of the act.

Section ninth provides that the Secretary of War, with the approval of the President, shall prescribe rules and regulations necessary to carry the act into effect.

Section tenth provides that an honorable discharge, on account of wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty, shall entitle the party discharged to the same benefits as if the term of service had been fully performed.

The Jeff. Davis Flag of Truce.

The flag of truce did not cover a proposal looking to peace. It is true, that four members of the Cabinet were called first to Gen. Scott's headquarters and then to the White House but they were not together more than fifteen or twenty minutes and some of them have since asserted to persons whom they would not have deceived that the communication was of no earthly consequence.

It may have referred incidentally to an exchang of prisoners but its purport was not as we learn irrelevant to the affair of the Saint Nicholas, a matter properly falling within the President's cognizance. The fact that a flag was sent a few hours later by Gen. Johnson to Gen. Patterson on an errand so trivial that Gen. Patterson refuses to receive another such, strengthens the theory otherwise well established that the rebels had resorted to this means for obtaining information and of causing delay.

THE proceedings of Congress hitherto show that a disposition exists in that body to sustain cheerfully the measures which the administration has thought it necessaay to adopt in the prosecution of the war. The opposition offered to the passage of acts justifying and sustaining the government is hardly worth mentioning, although the creation of a standing army and navy met with much dissent in the Senate. The sense of Congress is manifestly in favor of the course which the Executive has found it necessary to pursue in the presence of a crisis which admitted of neither hesitation nor delay.

IT must now be apparent to the most superficial observer of the developments of our Southern pro-slavery rebellion that the alternative offered to our revolted States is their speedy return to the Union or the ruinous demoralization of their peculiar and vital institution of African slavery. A speedy settlement, or the absolute overthrow of Southern industry, Southern wealth and the foundations of Southern society, is the issue now presented to Jefferson Davis and his confederates.

IT seems that Captain Ward was killed at Mathias' Point by James Sthreshly, of Stafford, Va. Young Sthreshly was armed with a Sharpe's rifle, and was a little nearer to the Freeborn than the main body of soldiers.—He took deliberate aim at a distance estimated at between four hundred and seven hundred yards.

THURLOW WEED condemns the course of the abolitionist, Lovejoy, for attempting to drag the slavery question into Congress. He says:—"The country will insist that the halls of Congress are not the proper place just now to trot out the negro."

THE course of the secession press of Baltimore is viewed with concern by the government. It is apprehended that their steady inculcation of treason will provoke riotous demonstrations. Prosecutions of the proprietors of these ournals are likely to take place.

GEN. FREMONT is expected to leave Washington for his headquarters at St. Louis in a few days.

THE MATTER EXPLAINED.—The truth of the assertion that one Secessionist is equal to five Union men, is proved by events in Northwestern Virginia. It takes four to catch a man and one to whip him.

COM. STRINGHAM has issued an order directing all vessels to keep outside the Gulf stream for safety, as the Southern privateers seldom go beyond that current.

THE Fourth of July was celebrated on the American coast this year by thirty-three regular men of war.

IT is stated that Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas intends passing a portion of the summer at the Mountain House.

THE HON. HENRY MAY'S ALLEGED MISSION.—We can assure the public that neither the Government nor any member of it has the slightest lot or part direct or indirect, in the current visit, errand or mission (whichever it may be) of the Hon. Henry May, M C., of Maryland, to Richmond. It is understood that he did apply to the President to be authorized to carry some expression from the Government here to the oligarchy, and was promptly given to understand that the Government had no propositions whatever, or even suggestions, to make, and would grant him no pass as an envoy or messenger from Washington to Richmond. He did, however, obtain a pass as a private citizen, traveling upon his own business; to go beyond the lines of the forces of the United States.

If Mr. May be talking to the oligarchy about "compromise," he is evidently doing worse than wasting his breath and time; for it may be, he is inducing them to believe, erroneously of course, that some settlement of the troubles of the times may be possible, besides the only one which the United States will accept. Viz: Their act of unconditionally laying down their arms and returning to their allegiance. Congress will very shortly vote four or five hundred thousand additional troops, and four or five hundred millions of money for the maintenance of the authority and rights of the United States. That act will serve, we trust to cure compromise-mongers, in a trice, of the folly of fooling their time and influence in embarrassing the cause—of the Union—they profess to have at heart.—Washington Star.

☞ THE GREAT SECRET.—It is admitted by all physicians that the grand secret of health and long life lies in keeping the blood and various fluids of the body in a high degree of fluidity. When you feel continued pain in the head or bowels, or any continued uneasness in any organ or other parts of the body, you can prevent serious sickness by taking

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Bleeding may give momentary ease, because the blood left will have more room. But as the body is made from the blood and sustained by the blood, to waste our blood is to wase our life, and ruin our constitution. But Brandreth's Pills relieve the circulation as readily as bleeding by only taking away what can well spare, and THAT NEVER HURT.

Mrs. Hooper, of Barnstable, Mass., was cured of St. Vitus Dance, General Debility, poorness of blood, and costiveness of many years standing, by Brandreth's Pills. The case at length is published in the Pamphlets. Sold by

GIVES HIS ENTIRE AND EXCLUSIVE attention to all maladies of the EYE and EAR requiring medical or surgical attention, to restore sight and hearing has now been some time in Pittsburgh, and has given proof of his success in the treatment of these diseases not only by the high testimonials from persons well known throughout the country which he possesses, and with which he intends to sell to the patronage of the public, but by similar certificates of cures performed by him here on some of the oldest and most respectable citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity.

From the hundreds of testimonials in his possession he will subjoin a few to this card, and begs to say that in consequence of his success and his increasing practice, he will remain for a limited time longer in this city.

DR. VON M. has to assure those suffering from Deafness, no matter how long standing, that they will find, if their case be a curable one, the desired relief from his mode of treating those organs. He further begs to state that his method is based on the Medical science, years of experience and improvements of his own, which have been highly praised by the first medical authorities both in this country and in Europe, and whi h justifies him to state that he is the only legitm to European Oculist to be treated by him either for DEAFNESS or INFLAMED EYES without applying without further ado, or giving him time to go, benefit themselves in the meantime, until he completes their case, particularly as the SUMMER MONTHS are the most favorable in the treatmen of diseases of the EYE AND EAR.

DR. VON MOSCHZISKER

The operation performed by you in the presence of my son-in-law, Rev. Mr. Gray, not only gave me ease but permanent relief. I hear now as acutely as in my earlier years. Respectfully,

HENRY BRIGGS.

FROM THE REV. W. S. GRAY.

BEAVER STREET, ALLEGHENY CITY.

It gives me great pleasure to bear witness to the truthfulness of the above. Mr. Briggs is now 71 years of age, and has been afflicted with partial, and sometimes total Deafness, for the last fifteen years. Thiscure is perfect. Dr. Von Moschzis ker, like the master of old, makes the I eaf to hear.

W. S. GRAY.

From an Old Well Known Citizen.

For the last eight years I have been deaf in my left ear, and my right one became dead some six months ago. I resorted to various means and incurred heavy expense in endeavoring to obtain a cur, but got no relief from any one, until finally, in despair, I ceased my efforts in this direction. At the earnest solicitation of my friends, however, I was induced to submit my case to Dr. VON MOSCHZISKER. As an old citizen, and widely known here, I most cheerfully testify that he has restored to me my hearing, which is now as perfect as it was forty years ago, and I earnestly recommend all afflicted with Deafness to consult Dr. VON MOSCHZISKER at once.

April 8th, 1861.

TO DR. VON MOSCHZISKER: 155 Third street, Pittsburgh—I am happy to inform you that my little daughter, who has been quite deaf for four years, has, under your skillful treatment, entirely recovered. I feel quite satisfied that she would never have been restored by natural causes, but to your treatment alone is she indebted for it, and I would earnestly recommend all afflicted with deafness to consult you at once.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN McCLOSKEY.
