THE WAR.

Desperate Fight near Beverly Road.

150 Rebels Killed and Wounded!!!

150 PRISONERS TAKEN.

THE REBELS ROUTED.

REBELS, RANDOLPH Co., July 12.—Yesterday morning, Gen. McClellan ordered four regiments of the 6th, 10th and 15th Indiana Infantries and the Ohio Cavalry to proceed along the line of the hills South of the enemy's entrenched camp to the Beverly road, where it crosses Rich Mountain, two miles East of the entrenched position, with orders to advance along the Beverly road and attack the east side of the works.

Gen. McClellan being prepared to assault the rebel position as soon as the firing should announce the commencement of the attack. The capture of a courier who mistook the route through the enemy camp for the route of our troops placed the enemy in possession of the movement. When Rosecrans reached the Beverly Road at two o'clock after a most exhausting march over the mountains, he found the enemy posted on the opposite side of the road, about 800 strong, with two cannons, holding a strong position partially fortified. An engagement instantly took place, and continued three quarters of an hour, the rebels were totally routed with a loss of 800 men, including ten officers and both cannons.

About 75 men and 75 wounded were taken prisoners. The road was between two hills, our troops in descending a steep declivity were greatly exposed to the fire of the rebels, who occupied the opposite hill and poured musketry, shot and shell upon them. Rosecrans's column remained at the place of the engagement during the night. Gen. McClellan was in position with his whole force during the afternoon, ready to meet the assault, but heard nothing from the other column except distant firing early in the morning. He was proceeding to plant cannon upon the crest of the mountain, when the rebels moved toward the place during the night, moving toward Laurel Hill, leaving a few men there, and all their tents, camp, baggage and transportation. A rapid march was then made by Gen. McClellan to Beverly, passing Rosecrans's camp on the road, and the rebels were followed quickly. At Beverly it was ascertained late in the day that the rebel force at Laurel Hill had retreated, moving toward the Beverly road, and that more than eleven killed and thirty-five wounded.

Approved by MAJOR GENERAL McCLELLAN. LOUISVILLE, July 13.—The Journal has a letter stating that the trains on the Nashville Railroad had been busy transporting soldiers from the South to Kentucky and Tennessee. It is thought that the sudden eruption of the soldiers will find East Tennessee unprepared. The Journal also has a report that the rebels are going on in all the counties immediately surrounding Frankfort. The same has a report that the rebels are heavily laden with provisions, pass Bowling Green daily, coming all the way from Louisville. The Surveyor of the Port, John W. Miller, has not been raised there, restriction on flour and grain, in part, removed.
