OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. PITTSBURGH:

FRIDAY MORNING,:::::::AUG. 2.

THE WEEKLY POST. Our Weekly may be had at the count ing room to-day, in wrappers ready for mailing. It contains all the latest news from the seat of war, the full proceed ings of the Democratic County Conven- Mr. Fleeson, and perhaps some of the tion, and all the latest news of the markets, local news, &c. The terms are three months' volunteers. one dollar per year, in advance, to each subscriber.

AN APPOINTMENT EMINENTLY

A special dispatch to the Gazette, from Mr. D. L. Eaton, announces the appointment of Colonel Thomas A. Scott. Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, to the newly created position of Assistant Secretary of War. This is a most capital appointment. There i not a man in the country of calmer judgment, greater foresight, energetic administrative ability and vigorous, perse vering action than Col. Scott.

At the commencement of this war hi valuable services were at once called into requisition by the Governor of his own State, Pennsylvania, whence he was almost immediately called to serve his government at Washington. There he was at once placed in charge of the onerous and most responsible duty of manager of the military railroad routes of the government, and superintendent of the transportation of troops. The country knows with what admirable efficiency he has discharged these duties.

Col. Scott is a man who never make a failure. That which he undertakes to do is always well done. He is a man of few words but of immense powers of action. A thorough knowledge of civil ledge of their batteries or other militaengineering and the topography of the country, together with quick powers of comprehension and combination, and above all the purest and most unswerving integrity of character, make Mr Scott, in this position, the right man in the right place.

COL. CAMPBELL.

We refer to our local column for the manly and complete refutation which Col. David Campbell, of the Twelfth regiment, makes against the singular, foolish and malicious slanders which asan officer and a gentleman, in advance of his return to the city.

No one who knows Col. Campbell--no moment that there was the slightest foundation in truth and fact for the husily circulated slanders with which his character has been assailed for a few days past. He needs no defence among those who know him. But, in conformity with his promise, he has fully, completely and unanswerably sustained a reputation of which, for his whole life, he may well be proud.

A meeting of his regiment was held in the City Hall yesterday afternoon, at which Col. Campbell made a statement, substantially the same as in his published card, and the remarks of the gallant officer were received with nine hearty, glorious cheers. As we said, in previously referring to this matter, "Truth is mighty, and it will prevail."

APPROVING THE POST.

We observe by the proceedings of the Democratic County Convention that s Mr. McGeary offered a resolution deploring the want of a newspaper to suit some partisan ideas which he may be supposed to entertain. The resolution was laid on the table by an overwhelming vote, thus showing how the Convention regarded the course of the Post. was evidently aimed. We notice it themselves. simply for the purpose of remarking that we do not look to such men as Mr. Mc Geary (whoever he may be, for we never ment of our course. When we find our circulation five times greater than it was sune few months ago, and increasing largely every day, we can dispense with Mr. McGeary's approval or endorsement. We acknowledge the honor done us by the Convention in the complete manner in which Mr. McGeary and his resolution were squelched by the overwhelmand shoulder a musket. motion to table the resolution.

WAR NEWS.

We hope the people will wait patiently and contentedly, and not get excited and impatient to have another battle. Weedo not anticipate anything like another general, engagement for two Belleville months to come. After the disaster at Manages it will take time to repair damages. There may be skirmishes. and perhaps in the West, engagements between our forces and the rebels of by not making application unless they considerable importance, but no decisive battle will be fought until our forces are and well drilled to show the rebels what a government. when prepared, can do with an unjust and mad rebellion.

POINTMENT OF PITTSBURGH-ERS IN THE ARMY. A special telegram to the Gazette announces the following appointments as having been made on July 31st: Henry B, Hays, of Pittsburgh, appointed a Captain in the Third Cavalry, U. S. A., tenants of infantry.

Col. James A Ekin and Samuel Mc-Kelvy were appointed to the Quartermas-

We congratulate these gentlemen upon their military honors, and hope hereafter to record that "they have done the State some service." All the gentlemen named are civilians. Col. Ekin others, have been serving among the

Gen. Bank's Position. Gen. Banks has not evacuated Harper's Ferry, but has only occupied a ronger position adjacent thereto.

Col. Stone, who commanded the livision at Point of Rocks, arrived in Vashington on Wednesday, with a most worable report of the position of Gen. Banks. He states that the rumors of s evacuation of Harper's Ferry, which ave been so widely circulated, are all dle. That, so far from that, Gen. Banks now occupies a strongly fortified post at that place, on the Maryland side of the river, and that he is receiving reinforcements daily. No apprehension need, therefore, be felt for the safety of Oen Banks' position. It has not been ascertained precisely how large a force the rebels have at Leesburg, but Col. Stone is of opinion that they are not there in arger numbers now than usual, and their rce at that point rarely exceeded two r three regiments.

INHUMANITY.—The refusal of the robel army to receive our flag of truce to look after the dead and wounded is almost without a parallel. The battle field could be approached and examined without our obtaining any knowry operations. But the privilege was denied, and those who attempted to recover a single body were arrested and held as prisoners. The orders of prohibition have no doubt come from Jeff. Davis, who was on the field on the day of battle; and though our officers will not retaliate, our men can never forget this unprecedented exhibition of in-

MAILS FOR BEAUREGARD.-It is as easy for the rebel army to obtain a daily mail from Washington as it is for our army in Alexandria to receive their letters. The market men come in from honorable gentleman, as we have been for of the rebels. Acting in concert with are thus reported to Beauregard and learn. Jeff. Davis.

It is high time that all power of sending communications of this character to the rebel army was cut off.

THE REBELS BECOMING BOLD. Since the affair at Bull's Run the rebels have become much emboldened on the while the officers are imprisoned in other side of the Potomac. Every night they pick off a few of our men, Sometimes squads of them can be seen within a mile of our intrenchments. The moment pursuit is made they dash off and escape. It was currently reported, on Wednesday morning, that the rebels captured six of out baggage wagons the day before, almost in sight of our lines. It is dangerous to travel over the road from Alexandria to Washington after nightfall. All the trees between Alexandria and Arlington Heights are being cut down to prevent against which Mr. McGeary's pop-gun the guerrilla rebels from concealing BAD FOR THE REPORTERS .- All information in regard to the movements heard of him before,) for an endorse of the army are to be hereafter kept most strictly private. Any Reporter hereafter found in the lines, no matter how he is disguised, is to be summarily to witness the next battle should also bear in mind that it will be necessary for them, in order to gratify their curiosity, to join one of the forward regidays.

THE BOARD OF EXAMINATION.-I s asserted that not more than two-thirds | debts due at New York on the 2d inst. of the volunteer officers who hold commissions will be able to pass before the Military Board of Examination. Already some of them, fully aware of their incompetency, have sent in their resignations. Those who desire commissions in the Army or Navy can save themselves and the Departments much trouble are fully qualified.

THE ENEMY ON THE MOVE.-Mr. Allen, of the Eleventh Massachusetts Regiment, who was a captive, and escaped from the enemy, returning on Wednesday to the camp at Washington, says that the enemy made no secrecy of their purpose to cross the river at Leesburg, and come down upon Wash-and a son of Mr. R. C. Fleeson, and Sam. IP. Heintzelman, Col. Andrew Samuel A. McKee were appointed Lieu-Porter, Col. W. B. Franklin, Captain Richard Rush, Col. John F. Reynolds, Major Samuel Sturgis and J. W. Mclong in the service. Of the first three Re(IMENT, Apply of COLL, NO. nothing need be said, since their conduct at Bull's Run, and long service in the army has placed them favorably before the country. Captain Rush was a classmate of General McClellan at West Point. Col. Reynolds was brevetted in Mexico, as was also Major Sturgis, who is now under Col. Siegel in Missouri.

> An Army of Colonels, The largest army ever put into the field by the government of the U. States. was that which assembled at Bull run Yet, in the whole field, there was not a single General of three months standing. Every division was commanded by s Colonel, and even General McDowell had held only a Colonel's cammission prior to the 15th of April, when President Lincoln issued his proclamation. Many regiments at Bull run were also weakened by having their Colonels taken away from them to head brigades. This shows how imperfectly the Union forces have, hitherto, been organized, ann how necessary the reforms ane which General McClellan is introducing.

ARRESTS FOR POLITICAL INFIDELITY -The recent reverse sustained by our irmy has made secesh so jubilant a Washington that it has betrayed itself where self-interest has hitherto kept it in abeyance. At the arsenal a number of this class of citizens have been quite open in their expressions of joy, and on Wednesday atternoon Isaac Miller, Daniel Moran, Peter McGinnis, Henry Dudley, Lewis Looke, Benjamin Harrison, Thoma Simmons, and Alfred Deagle workmen, were arrested, by order of the House committee, of which Mr. Potter s chairman, on the charge, it is supposed, of being in treasonable league against the Government. This is serring the rebel sympathizers as they de serve to be served. There is too much secession in the Federal Capit of which must be rooted out.

Not True. There was a vague rumor reached Clarksburg, in Western Virginia, on one acquainted with his character as an the very districts in Virginia that are Wednesday, that Col. Tyler, of the 7th accurate and fair business man and now occupied by the pickets and scouts Ohio regiment, with 3,000 Union troops -a portion of General Cox's armythe last twenty years, believed for one these, ladies in Washington, wives of had met Governor Wise with 7,000 rebprominent citizens, visit the market cls at Bulltown, and that 600 Union with their baskets, the contents of men and 1,500 rebels were killed, which are packages of letters for the There appears, however, to be no conother side. > FEASTED, -The rebel prisoners (seventy-one in number) in the "Old Capitol" here are feasted by their Secession friends in the city.

Our men captured at Bull Run, are at hard labor in the intrenchments.

THE ENEMY'S LOSS .- A very reliable soldier, who escaped on Wednesday and got back to Washington, says the rebel loss was 1,500. It is so stated by all parties at Manassas, and he believes is certainly not less, whatever more.

The Effect of the War upon the Boys. That was a narrow philosophy which nferred from war no results but evil. for in the economy of society it so happens that the sternest virtues arise out of vice. To note a normal effect of the struggle, we have but to remark the stirring up of the youth of the land in consequence of the great military movements around us. The boys were fast degenerating under the old regime of peace. Their rivalries had little of the physical in them, and, in place of the activity and daring of a former time, we had the contests of embryo speculators, book-keepers and writers. In other words, we were growing as artificial as possible, and the enervating influences of peace had extended even to the sterile hills and mountains. But the war has awakened a better ambition, and tempered with a bodiltry topographically, and had with him Brigadier General, conferred upon him for the time—and many thank God for the fact—are laid aside, and if the fight
