A YOUNG ROUGE -Yesterday morning, a lad of some twelve or thirteen summers, named John Johns, was arrested at the jewelry store of R. T. McGoagh, on Liberty street, where he was endeavoring to barter some jewelry. It was also ascer-tained that he had sold to D. Dunseath, jeweler, on Diamond alley, a quantity of trinkets, such as chains, breast pins, &c, the information of those interested. for which he got a watch. The boy had been at the store of Reineman, Meyran & Co., Fifth street, in the morning, and being seen at other stores suspicion was aroused, and on examination it was accertained that he had stolen from them a quantity of jewelry, some $25 or $30 worth, which he letters: Postmasters at or near any camp or jewelry, some $25 or $30 worth, which he was trading off for articles that suited his fancy botter. He was searched at the Mayor's office, and nearly all the stolan jewelry found upon him, including a ring identified by Mr. Dunseath. After giving mythe trinkets to the officers he succeeded in fobbing one of the rings a second time, which was afterwards found upon his per-sen. He is a sharp boy, hailing, we be-lieve, from Philadelphia. He has begun a bad career early and a term in the House of Refuge or County jail, which seems now inevitable, may have a reformatory effect inevitable, may have a reformatory effect such letters will be collected at the cffice of delivery. upon him.
