OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

CITY MATTERS.

MONDAY MORNING.....AUG. 19.

The Home Guards of Allegheny County.

We have been much surprised within a few days past to observe in print some ill-natured flings at an organization upon which, scarce two months since, the highest encomiums and most flattering compliments were bestowed—the Home Guards of our county. There seems to be a studied determination of obliging them to tender their services (which have not yet been asked) to some one for some mysterious purpose, and to this end they must be badgered and shamed into something like a semblance of courage and patriotism. Now we have a better opinion of the Home Guard than some of those who have so causelessly assailed them; we believe their ranks contain quite as many patriotic spirits as a like number of men anywhere, and we do think that such complaints come with a bad grace from those who have neither the courage nor inclination to join even a Home Guard company.

Every one who has paid the least attention to the matter understands the character and object of this organization. It is composed chiefly of men whose family relations and business connections prevented them from entering into active service, but who, desirous of being fit for service when danger threatened near home, formed themselves into companies, uniformed themselves from their own private resources and although they procured arms (spirited away from the Arsenal, no one knows how) from the Committee on Home Defense, gave bonds in four times their value, stipulating for their return in twelve hours when needed. They devoted a portion of their time to drilling and manœuvering, until their proficiency on a public occasion was matter of wonder. Many of these companies have in the ranks our best business men, whose departure at this time would be a public loss, while others are so situated that, however willing, they cannot leave their families and posts of public service at home.

Now we ask is it fair that such good citizens as these, many of whom have also contributed liberally to the cause, shall be pressed into a service they are, for sufficient reasons, unwilling and unprepared to enter, and because they do not rise up en masse, and offer themselves, regardless of every interest here, are they to be bullied in the public prints, stigmatized as poltroons and made a butt for ridicule? Fortunately we have evidence of the spirit of our Home Guard. When Morgantown was threatened twelve companies were offered in as many hours, two or three companies are now in or preparing for active service, while hundreds of young men from the ranks of these home companies have joined others for active service.

And yet, forsooth, the imputation of cowardice is cast upon our Home Guard, and they are to be goaded into a forced service. We venture to say that there are as many good men in their ranks as will be required of us, who are ready to go when their services are needed, which will not be until the surplus population is exhausted, hundreds of whom are still to be seen in our streets. But the last resort to induce intelligent men to do their duty, which they well know, is this new process of bullying. Let us have no more of it.

The Little Saw-Mill Run Quo Warranto.

In this matter, argued fully the week before, Judge Mellon delivered an opinion on Saturday morning, in the Court of Common Pleas. They were of the opinion, that the general act of Assembly relating to the election of directors of Railroad Companies, was merely directory in its terms, and that the act incorporating the Company was special, and where it was in conflict with the general act, the act of incorporation was to be followed. The general act, where an election had not been carried out in compliance with its provisions, did not declare the election null and void, but only voidable. They also held that the act giving the Court power to issue the writ of Quo Warranto, did not make it compulsory on the Court to do so, but left it to their discretion. In view of the above, and that the Company had always heretofore conducted their elections in the same manner, and that no party had been injured in such manner as would render the interposition and aid of the Court, they refused to grant the writ.

MINING NEWS.—From a late copy of the Lake Superior Miner we learn that a new vein has been struck at the National mine, about five feet in width, and carrying a good percentage of barrel and stamp copper, and furnishing one mass last week of 1,000 pounds. The walls are very distinctly marked and the vein easily mined, a contract having been taken last week, by the party which commenced the drift, for seventy five feet at $3,75 per foot. The mass and barrel work from the Quincy for the last month was about fifty tons—The Powabic, during the same time, yielded one hundred and twenty-seven tons, and the Franklin nearly eighty-four tons, including a single mass nineteen feet in length and weighing over four tons.

ADVICE GRATIS.—The time to take on health and vigor is during the next two months, when the nights and mornings are cool and the picolos of mosquitoes are settled for the season. Weather like yesterday renders country trips superfluous, and makes the city quite as enjoyable. Now is the time for invalids to take gentle exercise. An early morning walk on such a morning as yesterday, in a bracing air, imparts a keener appetite than a pint of wine bitters or a kennel full of bark. As shoe-leather is cheaper than pills or syrups, let everybody take notice and act accordingly. The people before whose doors we never see a doctor's sulky are the people who breathe the open air and indulge in healthful exercise.

WE saw, on Saturday a great number of boxes and packages, on Fourth street near Market, marked "Lieutenant Col. Emory, Third U. S. Cavalry." These were the camp equipage, &c., for his regiment, to be taken to Linden Grove by the East Liberty Passenger Railway. The camp begins to present a very military appearance; over one hundred tents have been put up and others are rapidly being added. The men will soon be supplied with horses and go through with the equestrain manœuvres. A visit to Linden Grove would be a pleasant mode of spending an afternoon.

CAVALRY GONE SOUTH.—A company of cavalry, numbering 100 men, went South on Wednesday night over the Baltimore railroad. The men presented a very fine appearance. They were commanded by Capt. Ormsby Robinson, and are attached to Colonel Young's Kentucky regiment. They are destined for Washington. For four nights past a company of cavalry has left the city, bound South.—Philadelphia North American.

THE test of the Dahlgreen gun at the proving ground was finished on Friday. After firing one thousand rounds of shot, the bore exhibited an enlargement of only .026 or scarcely more than one fiftieth of an inch. The test having been eminently favorable to the gun the Fort Pitt works will go on and make a number of these guns, for which they have a contract.

THE BEAVER BRIDGE.—The Wellsburg Herald states that this bridge, which was swept away during the late flood, lodged on a small island in the Ohio, near that town.

The Late Freshet.

The damage by the late freshet in Beaver county, was, according to the Star, most serious. It says: "Two of the canal locks at Bridgewater were broken, and at New Brighton and Fallston much injury was done to private property near the river. Mr. Bentley, proprietor of the rope factory at New Brighton, estimates his loss at $10,000. Messrs. Miner & Merrick, of Fallston, lost about $1,000, and Messrs Stewart, Kennedy & Duff, of the same place, about $2,000. By the destruction of the rope factory many laborers are thrown out of employment. The New Brighton side of dam No. 2 gave way, causing damage to the mill race to the amount of $10,000. Charles Cole's residence, in New Brighton, was damaged to the amount of $1,000. All along the course of both rivers, boats, fences, crops of grain, and whatever else was in reach of the water, has been swept away. One gentleman near Darlington lost several head of cattle, and another had two fine horses drowned."

From another source we learn that a number of buildings were carried down the stream, among them, two large woolen factories and a saw-mill. The buildings came down the river with such fury as to tear everything away with which they came in contact. This was the cause of so great damage to the railroad bridge of the C. & P. Railroad. When the buildings and rubbish struck the bridge they came with such force as to take with them the heavy stone piers which supported the superstructure. The people in the vicinity were almost frantic with fear, and many barely escaped with their lives, saving nothing.

The damage to property and the loss of life along the streams in Columbiana county, Ohio, is said to be appalling. Near Elkton it is reported four houses were taken down the stream during the night, with all the inmates and contents. Many persons were drowned, and the property totally destroyed.

The Laurence Journal gives an account of numerous disasters in that vicinity, and says bridges, dams, fences, trees and houses were swept away by the flood. The loss is not less than $100,000, half of which will be required to repair the canal between New Castle and New Brighton.

Feeding the Volunteers.

Our readers are already aware that the Committee of Sustenance for Volunteers provides a free lunch to all regiments passing through our city, either to or from the seat of war. The old Leech warehouse has been fitted up for this purpose. It will accommodate an entire regiment. The Committee have already furnished a substantial meal to five or six regiments—One of them an Indiana regiment, had not received a regular meal from Thursday evening until Sunday morning, when they were provided for by this committee. When they left they gave three hearty cheers for the hospitality of Pittsburgh. An officer of the Wisconsin regiment which passed through on Thursday, as he returned his thanks to the committee, feelingly added to the ladies present, "May God bless these noble hearted Pittsburghers."

We have been informed that the funds collected for this purpose have been exhausted, and that a committee will wait upon our citizens this week for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions. We hope they will meet with a liberal response. Provisions of any kind will be thankfully received, they can be left at Weyman & Sons, Smithfield street, Geo. Albree, Son & Co's., Wood street or B. Wolf, jr., Liberty street.

Prince Napoleon and Suite.

Rather unexpectedly to many of our citizens the noon train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Saturday, brought, in the Directors' car, set apart for their use, the Prince Napoleon and suite, who came by the Allentown route from New York. The Prince is a fine looking man, somewhat corpulent, a little above the medium height, and exhibits no ostentation in dress. The party all expressed themselves highly pleased with the trip over the mountains. There was no demonstration at the depot beyond a few cheers from such as happened to be present. The party regaled themselves by a lunch sent up from the Monongahela House for them and then proceeded on their journey Westward, by the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, occupying a car prepared for their reception. As the breaks in the road are all repaired they will suffer no interruption or delay on the way. The party will stop for a time in Cincinnati and then proceed to St. Louis

A MODEL DRUG STORE.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Jos. Fleming, druggist, in another part of this paper. Mr. F. has one of the neatest establishments of the kind in the city, and keeps constantly on hand a large and well selected stock of goods in his line. His assortment of drugs, perfumeries, pure liquors for medicinal purposes, and in fact everything that constitutes a first class "apothecary shop" is complete. Attentive and polite clerks are at all times ready to wait on customers, and we cheerfully commend the establishment to the public. Don't forget, corner of Market street and the Diamond.

THE DUQUESNE GREYS.—We are pleased to learn that Lieut. R. L. Coltart, of the Duquesne Greys, is reorganizing that company for the regiment to be commended by Col. Campbell. A number of the old members will re-enlist for the war, and as Lieut. Coltart is a popular and well-drilled officer he can get an unlimited number of recruits. The armory is in the third story of Wilkins Hall. We wish him all success.

COMMITTED AS A DESERTER.—On Saturday Mayor Wilson had a man named Wm. H. Miller arrested on an information made by Lieut. J. R. T. Noble, of Capt. E. S. Wright's company, attached to Col. Black's regiment. Miller, it is alleged, is a deserter from the company and as such the Mayor committed him to prison. He will be taken back to Harrisburg to-day and delivered to Col. Black, to be dealt with according to military rules.

GONE INTO CAMP.—The Siegel Guards, Capt. Kopp, accepted in Col. Williams' regiment, left for Philadelphia by Sunday morning's train, accompanied by Colonel W., who has gone to organize his camp, which is in a very pleasant situation at Suffolk Park, eight miles from Philadelphia, near Darby. The Guards are well uniformed, and a fine looking body of men.

COMMITTED.—On Saturday Alderman Donaldson, committed to jail Hannah Johnston, of Manchester, colored, for keeping a disreputable house, and Mary Ann Beck, a white inmate of the same, for disorderly conduct. William Johnston, husband of Hannah, was sent up a few days since for adultery with the woman Beck.

FLOURING MILL DESTROYED.—On Friday night, a flouring mill at New Waterford, Ohio, owned by a man named Taylor, was totally destroyed by fire. This statement is from passengers who came through the town soon afterward by the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.

BARN BURNED.—We learn that the barn of Mr. James F. Graham, of Pine township, Mercer county, was struck by lightning on Sabbeth evening of last week, and burned to the ground, with all its contents, consisting of his late crop of wheat, hay, rye, oats, wagon, harness, &c.

THE charming Adah Isaacs Menken commences an engagement at the Theatre this evening. The bill consists of "The French Spy" and "Lola Montez." Adah is a popular and versatile actress and will, we are sure, do a good business during her stay.

THE HOME GUARD.—In order to ascertain the feeling among our efficiently organized Home Guard companies with regard to going into active service for a limited period, the Captains of the respective companies are requested to call meetings at their armories this evening, to ascertain how many men from each company can be depended upon and who will enroll their names for a patriotic service. The officers will report to the Committee of Home Defence on Tuesday morning or to John Harper, Esq., at the Bank of Pittsburgh.

SUMMONED.—The Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh have been summoned to appear before the Judges of the Circuit Court of Western Pennsylvania, on the first Monday of September next, to answer Edgar B. Day and James L. Morgan, citizens of New York, in actions of debt. The City Solicitor will represent the corporation.

POLICE APPOINTMENT.—Mayor Drum, of Allegheny City, on Saturday, appointed Mr. G. S. Drane on his police force, and detailed him as special policeman at the Railroad Station, Allegheny City, to protect the company's passengers and premises from annoyance from runners, &c. Mr Drane is also gate keeper for the Railroad Company at this station.

DROWNED.—A lad about nine years of age, named John Port, was drowned in the Monongahela river, near the Gas Works, on Saturday morning, having gone in to bathe and got beyond his depth. His body was recovered soon after and taken to the residence of his parents on Tunnel street.

IMPROVEMENT.—The depot buildings of the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. at Rochester, are being almost rebuilt and entirely remodeled, under the supervision of the agent at that place, Mr. Ira Blanchard.—The depot will soon be one of the finest on the road.

COL. HAY, who has now a company in Camp Wilkins and will send two or three more out to-day, has received a dispatch from the War Department, extending the time within which he was required to have his regiment ready.

DISCHARGED.—The hearing of Peter Delaney, charged with stabbing Ford, closed on Saturday morning at the Mayor's office, resulting in his discharge, it appearing that Ford had inflicted the wound upon himself while intoxicated.

A SOLDIER belonging to the Plummer Guards, of the 21 Virginia Regiment, who died at the Marine Hospital in Wheeling was buried on Thursday with the honors of war by the Rough and Readys, Capt. Britt.

ASSAULT AND SURETY.—John Ruffley was committed to jail on Saturday by Alderman Lewis, upon charges of assault and battery and surety of the peace, preferred by Robert S. Campbell

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at an early hour on Saturday morning was occasioned by the burning of a pile of lumber in McQuewan & Douglas' lumber yard, corner Penn and Wayne streets. Loss trifling.

SOUTHERN PAPERS.—As a matter of every day occurrence we are again under obligations to the Adams' Express Co. for late St Louis and New Orleans papers.

THE amount distributed by the relief committee for volunteers' families, up to this time, is $14,417.32.

CAPT. HERRON'S cavalry company was sworn into the service on Saturday.

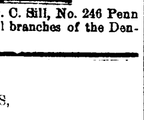
TO THE PUBLIC.



ESPECIALLY the ignorant and falsely Modest Physicians of all denominations, treat secret and delicate disorders, self abuse and diseases or situations common and incident to youths of both sexes, and adults, single or married. Because Dr. BRANDRETH publishes the fact of his doing so, the ignorant and falsely modest are dreadfully shocked, and think it a great sin very immoral, and for contamination and corruption among their wives, promising sons and daughters. Their family physician should be cautious to keep them in ignorance that they do the same as Dr. BRANDRETH, (except publishing) lest a lucrative practice might be lost to them among stupid, falsely modest and presumptuous families, born and raised in ignorance, springing up as mushrooms, and who compare society, intelligence, sense, &c., to dollars and cents, monopolizing, meanly or illy gotten. It is to publicity, however, that numerous parents and guardians are thankful that their sons, daughters and wards, previously feeble, sickly and of delicate condition and appearance, have been restored to health and vigor by Dr. BRANDRETH, besides many before and after marriage through him have been saved much suffering, anxiety, mortification, &c. Having the advantage of over thirty years experience and observation, consequently, he has superior skill in the treatment of special diseases, and who is daily consulted by the profession, as well recommended by respectable citizens, publishers, proprietors of hotels, &c Spermatorhœa, or so called nocturnal emissions.—This dreadful malady can be completely cured by the very last discovery that has never yet failed. In female diseases he has had superior experience on account of his old age, seventy years, all irregularity is completely cured. As for consumption or pulmonary diseases my syrups, which are composed from Iceland moss and other ingredients by a skillful physician five years at the business, it has had more success than all the pretensions that have as yet been discovered as the certificates will show. They are all genuine and can be found socooring to a pamphlet that each person will get at the examination, all free of charge—Office 85 Smithfield street, near Diamond street. ROLLA, Mo., Aug. 15.—We are indebted to the correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat for the following intelligence: Mr. Graham, a Union clerk in a secession store, reached here this morning. He reports that four regiments of rebel cavalry, under Gen. Raines, entered Springfield on Sunday noon, and hoisted a secession flag on the Court House, amidst the noisy demonstrations of troops and a few resident sympathizers.

Our wounded soldiers in the hospital had not been molested, and it was announced that only the home guards would be the subjects of resentment. The rebels purchased everything in the stores, paying any price demanded in Confederate scrip. They were particularly anxious to get shoes, some of their regiments being entirely barefooted.

Captain Indest, one of General Siegel's skirmishers, who was wounded in the battle, reports that Siegel's attack on the rear of the rebel camp was a complete surprise to them; that they were driven back towards General Lyon's command in front with great slaughter, their dead laying in heaps on the field; and that, for the first half hour, Siegel did not lose a man. Subsequently our troops were subjected to a murderous cross-fire from a number of the rebel cannons, throwing a perfect shower of grape and shell into our ranks. After driving the rebels back about a mile and a half, Siegel drew off his force, and fell back on Springfield.

Wagons containing families of Union men continue to arrive here. More than one half of the population of Springfield have left, and the farmers along the route to this place are leaving their homes. It is reported that Siegel's command is only fifteen miles from here. His arrival may be expected to-day or to-morrow.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 17.—Little Rock dispatches of the sixteenth says: McCulloch's victory is fully confirmed. The fight occurred on Saturday, eight miles South of Springfield. The enemy took the Confederate pickets prisoners and surprised the main body. A bloody and desperate encounter ensued, with great loss on both sides. Five regiments of Missourians becoming panic struck, were thrown into disorder and fled.

Price made two ineffectual attempts to rally them. The Louisiana regiment gallantly suffered much. Price led the Third and Fifth Arkansas with splendid courage. McCulloch's letter of the 11th says the victory was ours. The battle lasted six and a half hours. Our loss is great. Lyon is among the dead. We took six pieces of artillery from Siegel and destroyed his command, and took many prisoners and small arms. The Confederate loss was from two to three hundred killed, and four to 500 wounded. Siegel's forces were pursued to Springfield, and it is thought McCulloch would there attack him.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 17.—It is denied along the Nashville Railroad, that the confederate authorities take money passing North-east, but it is known that they take all the gold in transitu, in cases giving the owners currency therefor, which is at a discount of at least 8 per cent.

A dispatch from the Nashville Union and American to the Louisville Courier says, that President Davis issued a proclamation, ordering all residents of the Confederate States, who do not recognize the Confederacy, to depart within forty days. The dispatch says that the battle took place at Lowesville, Virginia, instead of Leesburg, wherein 250 Federals and 50 Confederates were killed and 1150 Federals made prisoners, the latter not being able to recross the river, having in the meanwhile swollen.

The Richmodd Examiner says, official sources indicated 210,000 Confederates in the field, at the time of the passage of the bill authorizing 400,000 volunteers.

The Richmond Dispatch is advocating Norfolk as the great Atlantic port of America.

The Confederate Congress have resolved to adjourn on the 19th, to meet in November next.

A young man from Richmond of secession proclivities, apparently well informed of the designs of the Confederate army, says they intend an immediate advance, and predicts fighting at the Relay House on the 18th. He says the Southern army is well provided with blankets, &c., for winter campaign and in a high state of discipline. He says, also, there is a universal desire to attack Washington.

A peace meeting, called by prominent secessionists for this evening, was held at the Court House. As the crowd entered the Hall, many were singing the "Star Spangled Banner." Jas. Speed, a Unionist was called to the chair; James Pabue, a secessionist was also nominated by the persons calling the meeting. A division of the House took place, when Speed was elected. The secessionists numbering a hundred, withdrew, shouting for the Southern Confederacy.

Speeches were made by Messrs. Speed, Wolfe, Harlan and others and resolutions were adopted with one dissenting voice after the preamble, stating that there is no mistaking the position of Kentucky in the present civil war; that she is unalterably for peace. It was resolved first—First while this State desires to be true to the Union, she also desires to have peace with the people of all the States. Second—That we earnestly desire the restoration of peace to every part of our beloved country, and as the speediest and surest mode of effecting the result, we appeal for a cessation of the war now being made on the North Third—That we behold in the dissolution of the Union a remedy for no evils, but an aggravation of all. Fourth—That we do not see how peace enduring and substantial is to be attained by the establishment of two independent governments within the present Union. Fifth—That we deprecate an attempt being made to produce by force a disruption of the Union. Sixth—That for the purpose of restoring peace, all patriotic men abandon sectional parties North and South, and the rights of the government should not be abandoned. It dictates armed rebellion. Seventh—That Kentucky's neutrality but foreshadowed her love for peace; that all negotiations looking to a consititional settlement of sectional differences and the preservation of the Union should refer her hearty co-operation. Eighth—That we are unwilling that any foreign power shall own the mouth of the Mississippi or any ports of the Union, and we therefore unalterably oppose the dissolution of the Union; we are for the country now and forever, whether assailed by foreign or domestic enemies. The resolutions were unanimously passed by the crowd filling the hall to overflowing.

ROLLA, Mo., August 18.—The St. Louis Republican correspondent furnishes the following items:

The forces engaged in the battle of Wilson's Creek reached their camping ground, eight miles southeast of here, to day, where there is an abundance of water and other facilities for camp life. Major Sturgis assumed command of the army at about thirty miles from Springfield, and has since conducted the retreat. The First Iowa regiment reached here to-day, and will proceed immediately to St. Louis and be disbanded, their term of enlistment having expired. The loss of this regiment was thirteen killed, one hundred and thirty-four wounded, fifty-six seriously and eight mortally, and five missing.

Lieut. Col. Merrell commanding the first Iowa regiment reports officially that the enemy brought into the field, 14,000 well armed and disciplined troops, and 10,000 irregular troops, while our own forces was only about five thousand in the early part of the engagement, and considerably less than 4,000 for the concluding four hours of it.

Capt. Emmett McDonald, of the habeas corpus notoriety, arrived at Maj. Sturgis' camp this morning with a flag of truce ostentatiously to negotiate an exchange of prisoners and procure medical stores for the wounded on both sides, but it is strongly suspected that he is really acting as a spy. What action Major Sturgis will take in the matter is not known.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—A detachment of United States troops from Cape Girardeau, seized $58,000, belonging to the bank of St. Genevieve yesterday, by order of Gen. Fremont and brought it to this city to-day. It is understood that this money was being or would be used for the benefit of the secession cause in that section. The statement in the late news from California, that J. C. Palmer left that State to take charge of the commissary department under General Fremont, is untrue. He has no connection whatever with Fremont.
