Washington, Aug. 26.—Commander Porter, who was recently deprived of his incommand of the sloop-of-war St. Mary, on suspiction of disloyality to the government, has voluntarily returned to Washington. He, to day, it is understood program; sented to the Navy Department an elaborate document, with proofs in relutation of the charges, showing that forgery has been resorted to for the purpose of injuring and discharging him.

The result of Gen. Meiga administration of the Quartermaster's Department are astonishing. The very large number of wagons, horaes, mules, and immense amount of equipage and other army supplies, offer direct evidence of his vigit as well as efficiency. The soldiers on both sides of the Potomae are not only prompt light but satisfactorily furnished, with every ly but satisfactorily furnished with everyas domestic wants, and this attention to their interests has largely contributed to the present fine and improving condition accorof the troops.

All the large craft, schooners and sloops, and small row boats and skills on the Potomer.

river have been taken possession of by the Government authority. This may be said matter of precaution, to prevent community cation between the Maryland and Virginia shores.
The State Department has been officially informed that the Mexican Government has proclaimed the port of Tonada, in the State of Chiapis, on the Paulic coast, a port of entry, which is ppend to the foreign and coastwise commerce.
