RUNAWAY AND COLLISION .- Yesterday morning a two horse team attached day morning a two horse team attached to an empty hay wagon, from Butler county, took fright on Smithfield street and in their headlong course to the river ran into Car No. 2 on the Birmingham passenger railway. One wheel of the wagon was taken off, one of the car horses was knocked down and the tongue of the car broken. The frightened horses then ran upon the bridge, where they came in ran upon the bridge, where they came in contact with the carriage of Mr. T. J.
