OITY MATTERS.

FRIDAY MORNING,:::::::::AUG. 30. FATAL HALLBOAD ACCIDENT - On Wed the platform of the third car, fell off and his foot catching in one of the steps he was dragged several rcds along the trank and killed instantly before the train could be checked. The body was brought to the city on the accommodation train in the evening and yesterday morning the Coroner held an inquest. The evidence showed that the man seemed drowsy at half drunk and though told to go inside the car, refused, and that he had no ticket. The junty and the property of the new rifle by our company. Nothing Contraband Found.—Two Jews from New York city traveling South with their families, were arrested on the arrival of the express train from the East yesterday and taken before Mayor Wilson, the large amount of baggage they carried (twenty-three trunks) exciting a suspicion that they may have a good opportunity of making good their that they were conveying contraband remain behind, and are guests of mine, being unable, from several causes, such as counsel in favor of the ordinance. The Nothing Contraband Found. -Two goods South. They were searched and also their baggage, but nothing suspicious found. It seems that they had been doing business in New York and had large sum of money due them in the Confederate States and were removing. States and were removing South for the purpose of securing them, if possible.—

THE PENNSYLVANIA CANAL. - We understand that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have made a contract for the repair of the Western division of the canal, etween this city and Freeport, and that one hundred hands have been sent to Freeport to repair the damage by the late freshet. This large force will be detailed upon the dock and breaks below the town. The dock, which was about two hundred feet long, was swept away, including the two stone abutments. The workmen are excavating the foundation for erecting about ten feet of stone work, from which will be built tresse! work thirty feet high, to sustain the superstructure. It is expected that it will be so far completed in three weeks as to let boats pass. The damage done to the canal will require an expenditure of $30,000.

A NARBOW ESCAPE -Yesterday morning a lady named Atkinson, traveling to the West, stopped at a milliner shop to the West, stopped at a milliner shop to make some purchases and laid her portemonale, containing some twenty-four doil hope some endeavor will be made to tighten it, for it is greatly to the inconvenience of us volunteers. Our present camp is well supplied by Dame Nature for our wants, there is a spring of pure running water a few paces in our resr, and fruit of many was found, having agreed to divide it with a comrade. TO DR. VON MOSCHZIERER: 155 Third street.

Pittsburgh—I am happy to inform you that my little daughter, who has been quite deaf for four years, has, under your skillful treatment, entirely recovered. I feet quite satisfied that an hearing would never have been restored by matrix canses, but to your treatment alone is she indebted: for it, and I would earnestly recommend all sfilleds with deafness to consult you at once.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN MOULOSKEY.
