OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

CITY MATTERS.

THE ARMY CONTRACT FRAUDS IN THE SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court convened yesterday morning, Chief Justice Roger Taney on the bench, to hear any motion that might be made in the case of Commonwealth vs. Brownfield...

On behalf of the defendant, Mr. Brownfield, the third count of the indictment, charging defendant with having defrauded the State out of some $200,000 of divers subtle acts, &c., and asked that the Commonwealth be obliged to furnish counsel for defense with a specification setting forth what they intended to prove under the count, and the means by which the alleged fraud was perpetrated.

After some discussion on this point, between Messrs. J. H. Hampton for the Commonwealth and Mr. Brewster for the defense, the Court decided that the defendant was entitled to know the character of the alleged acts, and made an order directing the Commonwealth to furnish the specification asked by the defendant, setting forth only the overt acts, not the evidence by which they are to be proven.

Court adjourned some afternoon until Monday morning, when the case will be taken up.

MAJOR OAKES.—The Wheeling Intelligence states that Major Oakes has concluded to resign his appointment as Brigadier General, because of the falling state of his health. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune announces his arrival at the Capital, and states that the cause of his hesitating to accept the commission lies in the fact that his health will not be able to bear the responsibilities of the position, if he remains in this climate in the winter. He is desirous of being assigned to some expedition designed for the South, when it shall be organized, in which case he would not hesitate to accept the position assigned him.

It is said that he has declined the position of the Second Cavalry, to a position on his staff, but as the Government is desirous of the commission, Brigadier General, he is desirous of being assigned to some expedition designed for the South, when it shall be organized, in which case he would not hesitate to accept the position assigned him.

THE SIX COMPANIES OF CAVALRY FROM INDIANA arrived at Wheeling on Wednesday and Thursday by steamer, to take to sea in the morning. They are to be sent to this city by boat on their way to Washington. They were consequently sent to Camp Bartles and will start for this city by Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad this morning. The companies are as follows: Capt. J. S. Buchanan, numbering ninety-five men, from Vevay, Switzerland county, Indiana; Capt. T. C. Dangle, numbering ninety-five men, from Switzerland county; Capt. M'Clintock, numbering ninety-five men, from Harrison county; Capt. Irwin, numbering ninety-five men, from Harrison county; Capt. Keister, numbering ninety-five men, from Harrison county. They have been in camp at Madison, Ind., and are described as a fine body of men, all provided with excellent arms, and without arms or equipments, some of them not even having bridles. They are well commanded, and are men of such stuff as can be made very serviceable, under the most trying circumstances, provided they are well armed and equipped, which will be done as soon as they reach Washington, but probably not before the 15th inst.

FROM VIRGINIA.—A number of volunteers who have been in service in Virginia for three months, returned to their homes here on Thursday and yesterday.

ST. ALGONIA'S ACADEMY, Loretto, will reopen for the reception of young ladies, September 21, 1861.

FOR THE POST.—Dr. Wm. M. Kram—Dear Sir—I was not the author of the article under the signature of B. in the Post of 29th inst., in which I am charged with having no gross indignation against the late Brigadier General. Pittsburgh, Aug. 30, 1861.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. C. Hill, No. 246 Penn street, above the Canal, has removed to the new building on the corner of Grant and Second streets.

KENWOOD BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS, will reopen Sept. 18. Terms reduced. Address, Rev. Jos. P. Taylor, New Brighton, Pa.

Col. Black Made a Brigade.

A letter received yesterday announces the appointment of Col. Samuel W. Black as a Brigadier General. His command will consist of the Thirtieth Regiment, Col. Rowley, the Twenty-Third, Col. Birney, the Thirtieth, Col. Chanter, the Thirtieth, Col. Williams, the Thirty-Second, Col. Lyngane and the Scott Legion, now in command of Lieut. Col. Latham. Gen. Black will fill his new position ably and his many friends will glad to learn of his advancement.

Sword Presentation.

The Lawrences Gros, of Col. Leazure's regiment now in Camp Wilkins, was the recipient of a fine sword yesterday, presented by Colonel Alex. Carnahan, of Union township, Allegheny county, and used by him during the war of 1812, in defence of his country. May the sword of 1812 be the sword of 1861. We know that in the hands of Lieutenant Black it will be used with telling effect, striking for the honor of his country.

We so it stated that a person of bad antecedents called at a house in Washington, Pa., to see Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, who was on a visit to his sister there, for the purpose, as is supposed, of taking his life or doing him violence, a price having been offered by the Richmond government. The man, with a companion, was arrested and committed to jail at Washington.

MORE SOLDIERS ARRIVED.—The Major General's company, arrived here on Thursday night and also Capt. John Dowling's company from Brookville, Jefferson county, Pa., and Capt. A. C. W. from Greenville, Jefferson county. They all went into Camp Wilkins. They go into the line of the 11th Ohio regiment, near Summerville. Various reports are received from the front, and it is believed that no attack would be undertaken by the Southern army, either at Gen. Lee or Gen. Wise, unless they have very much to show for their efforts, as in the case of Col. Tyler, of the 11th Ohio regiment, near Summerville. Various reports are received from the front, and it is believed that no attack would be undertaken by the Southern army, either at Gen. Lee or Gen. Wise, unless they have very much to show for their efforts, as in the case of Col. Tyler, of the 11th Ohio regiment, near Summerville.

HOUSE BURNT.—The house of Mr. Boggs, a strong Union man, who lives not far from Fairmont, Marion county, Va., was fired on Thursday night last by a party of secessionists. The house was fired on by a secessionist named Straight, who was for a time a prisoner at Camp Carlisle, but who was released upon the receipt of a letter from his wife.

BARK BURNED.—On Sunday, the 18th inst., the bark of Mr. Abraham Wiant, near Carlisle, Marion county, was burned to the ground, with all its contents, by a party of secessionists. The building was filled with wheat and other grain, and the loss is estimated at $10,000.

LAST NIGHT OF THE SEASON.—The last performance for the summer season will be given at the Theatre this evening. Miss Adah Isaacs Menken appears as the heroine of the play, "The Two Widows." The performance concludes with "Jack Sheppard." Miss M. personating the highway man.

Gas is not cheaper here than in any city in the world. The company of Plymouth, England, has reduced the price of gas to 75 cents per 1,000 feet, and one half its share, and it is expected that the highest dividends allowed to the company by law.

MORE CAVALRY WANTED.—Washington dispatches say that the Secretary of War will do all that is in his power to recruit more cavalry from this State. This is the favorite arm of the service and the best equipped, and it is expected that the requisition will be readily obtained.

CALL EARLY AND GET A COPY to send to your friends. The company of Plymouth, England, has reduced the price of gas to 75 cents per 1,000 feet, and one half its share, and it is expected that the highest dividends allowed to the company by law.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

From Baltimore, BALTIMORE, Aug. 30.—The American of today has following: "We have seen a well-known citizen, of Baltimore, who returned from on business sent to North western Virginia, from whom we gather the following reliable and positive information: He says that up to the afternoon of Tuesday last, the 27th, Gen. Rosecrans was not only alive and well, but was quietly transacting his important functions at his headquarters. No information whatever of any engagement was undertaken beyond the occasional contact of pickets or scouts had occurred. Although it was not known exactly where Gen. Rosecrans' forces were posted, or their numbers, it was evident that the General was under no special alarm in regard to them. It is believed that the Southern army, the main body of the Confederate army, believed to be commanded by Gen. Lee, from 7,000 to 8,000 strong, was encamped on a large tract of six miles in extent, from the encampment of Gen. Reynolds, who is supposed to have with him the 11th Ohio regiment, near Summerville. Various reports are received from the front, and it is believed that no attack would be undertaken by the Southern army, either at Gen. Lee or Gen. Wise, unless they have very much to show for their efforts, as in the case of Col. Tyler, of the 11th Ohio regiment, near Summerville.
