The Last Speech of Stephen A. Douglas. In the speech made by Stephen A. Douglas at Chicago, May 1st, he used these admirable and memorable words:

"Whoever is not prepared to sacrifice party organizations and platforms on the alter of his country does not deserve the party organizations and platforms on the altar of his country does not deserve the support and countenance of honest people. How are we to overcome partizan antipa-thies in the minds of all parties so as to present a united front in support of our country? We must cease discussing party issues, make no illusions to old party tests, have no crimination and recrimination indulge in no taunts one against the other, as to who has been the cause of these

"When we shall have rescued the Gor ernment and country from its perils, and seen its flag floating in triumph over every inch of American soil, it will then be time enough to inquire as to who and what has ave a country in a Government for our children to live in peace and happiness, it will be time for each of us to return to our party banners according to our own convictions of right and duty. Let him be marked as no true patriot who will not abandon all such issues, in times like this.'

"HE who is not for his country is agains her. There is no neutral position to be occupied. It is the duty of all zealously support the Government in all its efforts to bring this unhappy civil war to a speedy conclusion."—Gen. Cass.

"Do not give up the Union. Preserve it in the name of the Fathers of the Revo lution-preserve it for its great elements o good—preserve it in the sacred name of Liberty—preserve it for the faithful and Liberty—preserve it for the faithful and devoted lovers of the Constitution in the rebellious States—those who are persecuted for its support, and are dying in its de- large amounts, and that should the fence. Rebelion can lay down her arms to Government—Government cannot surrender to rebellion."—Hon. Dan'l S. DICKINSON, of New York.

"I am for supporting the government.—
I do not ask who administers it. As a sincere lover of the Union, we reof the Republican party, and by a very large majority of the loyal and patriotic masses of the people. But the tranmels of party and the machi nations of spoilsmen will not be permitted to work any serious evil to the glorious cause of liberty. The Republican Administration in this war for the Union; because they asked or expected to be paid in petty offices. They are standing by their country because it is their country: The people appreciate the condition of affairs, and will not much longer submit to the schemes of official corruptionists for their own aggrandizement. The Republicans of Allegheny county did not expect their delegates to act as they have acted, and this will be demonstrated fully hereafter by the action of the people themselves. Where all are loyal and true they cannot understand the philosophy nor the justice of keeping up partizan distinctions at a time when such distinctions are not only unnecessary but dangerous to the common cause.

We cannot close this article without paying honorable tribute to the bold stand taken by the Chairman of the political convention, Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., of the public service, not more than and such man as J. F. Dravo, Robert Ster the total expenditures of Great Britain venson, C. B. M. THE NATIONAL LOAN.

Appeal to the People of the United States. WASHINGTON, Sept. 1 .- The followloan has just been issued by Secretary Chase to the citizens of the United States:--

Your National Government, compelln a causeless insurrection, is engaged n a war for security and liberty, for the supremacy of the law, for the defence f the Union, and for the maintenance of popular institutions. For the means to defray the necessary expenses of this war, your Congress has directed that an appeal be made to you by open ing a subscription to a National loan of one hundred and fifty millions of dol-

Already the enlightened and patriotic capitalists of the great cities of New duty and interest by a subscription of $50,000,000. Congress, under which this subscription was received, wisely provides, however, that the advantages as well as the patriotic satisfaction of a participation in this loan, shall be offered, not to the capitalists of the great cities only, but to the people of the whole country. In order to secure a substantial reward for their public spirit to those whose patriotism prompts them in this hour of trial to place their means at the disposal of the Government, Congress has directed that an interest of 3-10ths per centum be paid on the several amounts subscribed, an interest not lible to State taxation, but constituting for subscribers a revenue not only certain in receipt, but greater in amount than can be expected from any ordinary investment.

And, in order to afford all citizens equal opportunities of parcipitation in hese advantages, Congress has further directed that subscriptions be received for sums as small as $50, as well as for desired, the smaller be perferred in its distribution. Each subcriber on pay-

When the wise man of old, sitting upon the rival claims of two mothers to a child, decreed that the child should be cut in twain and one portion given to each it was the false mother who exulted at the judgment, while the true mother turned away horror-struck, preferring to leave her offspring in the hands of an enemy rather than have it destroyed.
