

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. PITTSBURGH: SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28. Price: Five Cents.

UNION TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT: WILLIAM W. MCGUIRE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: LAURENCE MITCHELL. FOR GOVERNOR: H. W. WILLIAMS. FOR COMMISSIONER: JOSEPH HODGES.

THE TICKETS ARE READY. The Union ticket is now ready for distribution, and electors of the several Wards, Boroughs and Townships of the county, are requested to send for a supply to the office of the Post.

ARE YOU ASSESSED? Don't neglect to see that you have been assessed. To-day, the 28th inst., is the last day that it can be done.

PEPPER CHRYSTOM IN A NEW CHAIR. So desperate have become the chances of a portion of the straight Republican ticket that they are found begging votes outside the few who affect to believe that party is greater than country.

Peter Chrystom is a regular Artemus Ward in politics. He uses his "wax-work" and his "goaks," which he exhibits with great eloquence and volubility. He is a splendid talker. He can beat Dan Rice playing cards, stand on his head, change his religion and politics to suit the crowd he may be in, so that they patronize his "wax-work," give him the quarters and ask no questions.

Artemus is no fool. He found this "wax-work" about played out; but as he must make a living and as it was perfectly immaterial to him whose figure he graced his traveling show, he procured the rather rare likeness of Abraham Lincoln and an excellent representation of the storming of Sumter.

His first exhibition was given in Blairville a few days after a handspinning performance in a Republican Convention—where he said "we make the extract from his own report" that it was as clear as a sunbeam that the war was concocted and hatched in the bosom of a Democratic Administration and nestled in the White House under the maternal care of James Buchanan.

As Artemus feels he has made a decided hit on the Sumter exhibition, he has ordered large quantities of his last in circulation, and is now busily engaged wrong impressions, who rested upon the minds of a great number in this country.

ELECTORS, BE READY.

The election is near at hand. Thursday, October 31st, every voter in Allegheny county should be prepared to do his duty by his country. The important principle of endorsing the Government in its acts to sustain itself is about to be decided. It is the determination of the people that partisan parties shall have no bearing upon the result of this election. Matters of greater moment are at issue. The Union must be sustained. This is the declaration and determination of every man.

The Republicans are largely in the majority in this county. In their conventions they declared for the Union. In this they were sincere. But the modifications and wire-working of office seekers presented the Republican convention from carrying out the admitted desire of the people. In the very face of their protestations of love for the Union and abrogation of party in the present crisis they offered a purely party ticket, composed of partisans of the strictest sect, whose greatest and only recommendation is their devotion to party and their intense desire for official position.

The hearts of the people are deeply imbued with a love for the Union. There is no difference of opinion among them in regard to the necessity of supporting their Government. They will refuse to follow a partisan lead now, not because they have given up any of the principles for which they have formerly contended, but because they appreciate the necessity at the present time of giving to the Government the endorsement of the popular vote.

The effort to force upon the people a straight partisan ticket at the present time is an outrage upon their patriotism, and they know it. The efforts of the Gazette to keep from the popular view the Union movements of the courtiers in order to forward the interests of the office seekers whom the people are determined not to have about the Court House, deceives no one.

The straight issue is presented of country or party, and the people will decide for the former. WE SHALL SEE. The Gazette clique, who have managed the fat places about the Court House for many years, claim the election of a straight Republican ticket this year, as an endorsement of the Chicago platform, and a vindication of the principles inculcated by that party, prior to the election of a President. We have great objection to this clap net just now, but we want the candidates of the straight Republican ticket, which the organ of that party insists shall be elected as Republicans, and nothing else to show their loyalty.

His first exhibition was given in Blairville a few days after a handspinning performance in a Republican Convention—where he said "we make the extract from his own report" that it was as clear as a sunbeam that the war was concocted and hatched in the bosom of a Democratic Administration and nestled in the White House under the maternal care of James Buchanan.

INJURIOUS STATEMENTS ABOUT DIVISION OF SEATTLE IN THE FREE STATES.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Union, one of the ablest and strongest advocates of a vigorous prosecution of the war until rebellion at the South is crushed out, feels constrained to say: "The Republican press, on the other hand, violate truth and decency for the purpose of producing the false impression that there is a powerful party at the North, numbering hundreds of thousands of able-bodied men, whose every sympathy is on the side of the rebel cause. If by garbling or otherwise perverting a speech or newspaper paragraph they can so distort its meaning as to make it appear to give aid and comfort to the enemy, while the known intent of the author was the exact opposite, they manifest as much alacrity in that shameful business as if they were thus adding a regiment to the Union forces. Never before in the political history of this country has there been so flagrant a disregard of the obligations which patriotism imposes upon every citizen—simply, perhaps, because never before has there been such an excellent opportunity for exhibiting the hitherto unthoughtful baseness of the heartless and unscrupulous demagogue. Why, now it is considered a highly honorable act, entitling a man to the most fulsome and extravagant praise and such compensation as his eulogists, have at command, to denounce as traitors and rebels men who never drew a sword, and who have always maintained an unflinching loyalty to the Government, devoted their time, their money and even their own souls to putting down this most execrable and wicked rebellion. We know of more than one instance of men who have consented to a personal visitation—and whose refusal was a justly merited rebuff from volunteers—who are denounced as rebel sympathizers and traitors at heart, merely because they differ in their views of political duty from their neighbors, with whom, however, they do not differ as to the necessity of defeating our enemies and preserving our Union. If, David and his 'Gorram' is this the way to convince the rebels that the North is a unit in opposition to their pretensions? Is this the way to convert moral into an auxiliary of military power? Is this the way to exhort our citizens to desert and to establish our claims to the honors and distinction which appropriately belong to the wisest and the best? There can be no two opinions on these questions."

The charge that the Democratic organization at the North, embracing a large portion of them, have conspired with secession, is made for the purpose of getting office by men who desire to ingratiate the idea that they are purer patriots than others, and for this paltry purpose the public interest suffers by the promotion of the man who has friends, that exist only in the charge of partisan selfishness and malignity.

PERSONAL. Col. James A. Mulligan was born in Littleton, N. Y., in the year 1829, and is consequently now thirty-three years of age. His parents were natives of Ireland. His mother, after the death of his father, took place when he was a child, removed to Chicago, where she has resided with her son for the past twenty-four years. She married a respectable Irish-American gentleman named Michael Lantry. He was educated at the Catholic college of Chicago, under the superintendence of the Rev. Mr. Kisselour, now of New York City. He is a strict member of the Catholic church. In 1852, 1853, and 1854, he held the office of the Honorable Isaac N. Arnold, of the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of the company attached to the Irish Brigade now in Missouri, and which has done so well in Lexington. In the winter of 1857 Senator Fitch, of Indiana, tendered him clerkship in the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of 1858 in Washington. During his residence in Washington he corresponded with the Union Telegraph, over the non de plume of "Satan."

After his return from Washington he was appointed a clerk in the office of the Honorable Isaac N. Arnold, of the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of 1858 in Washington. During his residence in Washington he corresponded with the Union Telegraph, over the non de plume of "Satan."

Col. Mulligan is worthy of all praise. A purer, better man does not live in the state of Illinois. Since he has been able to tell the difference between ale and water, a glass of spirituous or malt liquor has not passed his lips. He is a rigid temperance man, although he is a soldier, and he would not touch a drop of wine, brandy or any other intoxicating liquor. He is six feet three inches in height, with a wiry elastic frame; large, lustrous, hazel eyes; an open, frank, Celtic face, stamped with courage, pluck, and independence, surmounted with a bushy mane of hair, tinged with grey. He is honorable in all relations—respectful, and he has won his way by untiring industry and unquestionable courage. On the 28th day of October, 1856, he was married to Miss Marian Nugent, of the Roman Catholic Bishop of Chicago. He is a fine scholar, a good speaker, a brilliant writer, and a promising lawyer.

A Chicago paper states that the Adams Express Company's bill against the Government, for transportation of guns, ammunition, &c., since General Fremont's command at St. Louis, will reach $30,000.

IN ANOTHER COLUMN WILL BE FOUND A REPORT OF THE MEETING HELD LAST EVENING TO ORGANIZE THE PEOPLE'S UNION PARTY FOR THIS CITY AND COUNTY, WITH REFERENCE TO THE ENSUING ELECTION.

The meeting was composed exclusively of the gentlemen who officiated at the mass meeting held at the Cooper Institute last Friday evening, and a more respectable gathering for political purposes was never before held in New York. The proceedings were characterized by order, harmony, and patriotism. A number of all shades of politics, every one of whom deprecated partisanship and political wrangling at the juncture of our national affairs, and pledged his sincerest sympathy and co-operation with this new spontaneous uprising of the people for the preservation of the Government. It was resolved that a Committee of three, representing the Union sentiment of each Ward, be appointed by the committee to be supported at the election, the committee to be selected from the officers of the Cooper Institute meeting, and no person to be a member of any partisan nominating convention. The movement thus successfully inaugurated, promises the most brilliant results, and political players and tricksters may as well contemplate it seriously, as an earnest devotee of Union men to show the South by a vote almost, if not quite unanimous that New York has no fellowship with rebellion, nor will she harbor traitors within her borders. This movement, too, cannot fail to encourage and inspire the fifty thousand New York soldiers now in the field, by convincing them that they need not fire in the rear from unprincipled peace-men in the Empire State.—[N. Y. Tribune.]

From the London Times, Sept. 10. The Emperor's expedition against Mexico. The expectation that the combined Anglo-French naval and military expedition is to be immediately organized and to depart for the Gulf of Mexico, to invade the territory of the United States, is regarded with the most intense interest by all who have watched the painful consequences of the various governments in that country. It is reported that Spain also is desirous of some respectable adjustment that may put an end to the prevailing horrors, and the private letters last received from Mexico, reiterate the assertion that foreign intervention is precluded for the whole population, with the exception of the military or political robbers by whom the existing anarchy has been created. Under the circumstances, too, it is assumed that the Federal Cabinet at Washington will be disposed cordially to cooperate with the British and Spanish efforts to quell the anarchy. Whether the question is to be dealt with by general combination which seems thus in prospect by France and Spain alone, it is evident that the possibility of further delay is at an end.

The London Dispatch, of the 10th of September 11, referring to a combined French and English expedition to the coast of Mexico, says it is surmised in some quarters that the object of the two expeditions is to have a strong force of Mexican troops, and to take advantage of any contingency which might arise during the pending conflict between the Northern and Southern States of the United States.

Our readers will be made acquainted with the sad catastrophe that occurred lately at Whittier's Theater—formerly the National Theater—Philadelphia. There were four sisters belonging to the corps de ballet at the time of the disaster, and three have since died. There is a romantic interest attached to this family. The father was a lieutenant in the British Navy, and some years since, while his two daughters were children, he made an experimental ascent in a balloon from a public garden in Paris. While in the air the gas by some means was ignited, and Lieutenant Gale perished by the same agent.

Who was subject to Catarrhs, Headache, Giddiness, Dizziness, and ringing in the ears, arising from a flow of blood to the head, should never be without BARKER'S PINK PILLS. These highly dangerous symptoms will be removed by the use of these pills. Sold by J. H. BARKER & CO., No. 121 Broadway, New York.

THE FAIRMAN UNDERTAKER, sole agent for the State of New York, of the celebrated "EMERALD" CASKETS, made of the finest materials, and fitted up in the most elegant style. Address: No. 43 NASSAU ST., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK UNION.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Union, one of the ablest and strongest advocates of a vigorous prosecution of the war until rebellion at the South is crushed out, feels constrained to say: "The Republican press, on the other hand, violate truth and decency for the purpose of producing the false impression that there is a powerful party at the North, numbering hundreds of thousands of able-bodied men, whose every sympathy is on the side of the rebel cause. If by garbling or otherwise perverting a speech or newspaper paragraph they can so distort its meaning as to make it appear to give aid and comfort to the enemy, while the known intent of the author was the exact opposite, they manifest as much alacrity in that shameful business as if they were thus adding a regiment to the Union forces. Never before in the political history of this country has there been so flagrant a disregard of the obligations which patriotism imposes upon every citizen—simply, perhaps, because never before has there been such an excellent opportunity for exhibiting the hitherto unthoughtful baseness of the heartless and unscrupulous demagogue. Why, now it is considered a highly honorable act, entitling a man to the most fulsome and extravagant praise and such compensation as his eulogists, have at command, to denounce as traitors and rebels men who never drew a sword, and who have always maintained an unflinching loyalty to the Government, devoted their time, their money and even their own souls to putting down this most execrable and wicked rebellion. We know of more than one instance of men who have consented to a personal visitation—and whose refusal was a justly merited rebuff from volunteers—who are denounced as rebel sympathizers and traitors at heart, merely because they differ in their views of political duty from their neighbors, with whom, however, they do not differ as to the necessity of defeating our enemies and preserving our Union. If, David and his 'Gorram' is this the way to convince the rebels that the North is a unit in opposition to their pretensions? Is this the way to convert moral into an auxiliary of military power? Is this the way to exhort our citizens to desert and to establish our claims to the honors and distinction which appropriately belong to the wisest and the best? There can be no two opinions on these questions."

The charge that the Democratic organization at the North, embracing a large portion of them, have conspired with secession, is made for the purpose of getting office by men who desire to ingratiate the idea that they are purer patriots than others, and for this paltry purpose the public interest suffers by the promotion of the man who has friends, that exist only in the charge of partisan selfishness and malignity.

PERSONAL. Col. James A. Mulligan was born in Littleton, N. Y., in the year 1829, and is consequently now thirty-three years of age. His parents were natives of Ireland. His mother, after the death of his father, took place when he was a child, removed to Chicago, where she has resided with her son for the past twenty-four years. She married a respectable Irish-American gentleman named Michael Lantry. He was educated at the Catholic college of Chicago, under the superintendence of the Rev. Mr. Kisselour, now of New York City. He is a strict member of the Catholic church. In 1852, 1853, and 1854, he held the office of the Honorable Isaac N. Arnold, of the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of the company attached to the Irish Brigade now in Missouri, and which has done so well in Lexington. In the winter of 1857 Senator Fitch, of Indiana, tendered him clerkship in the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of 1858 in Washington. During his residence in Washington he corresponded with the Union Telegraph, over the non de plume of "Satan."

After his return from Washington he was appointed a clerk in the office of the Honorable Isaac N. Arnold, of the Department of the Interior. He accepted the position, and spent the winter of 1858 in Washington. During his residence in Washington he corresponded with the Union Telegraph, over the non de plume of "Satan."

Col. Mulligan is worthy of all praise. A purer, better man does not live in the state of Illinois. Since he has been able to tell the difference between ale and water, a glass of spirituous or malt liquor has not passed his lips. He is a rigid temperance man, although he is a soldier, and he would not touch a drop of wine, brandy or any other intoxicating liquor. He is six feet three inches in height, with a wiry elastic frame; large, lustrous, hazel eyes; an open, frank, Celtic face, stamped with courage, pluck, and independence, surmounted with a bushy mane of hair, tinged with grey. He is honorable in all relations—respectful, and he has won his way by untiring industry and unquestionable courage. On the 28th day of October, 1856, he was married to Miss Marian Nugent, of the Roman Catholic Bishop of Chicago. He is a fine scholar, a good speaker, a brilliant writer, and a promising lawyer.

A Chicago paper states that the Adams Express Company's bill against the Government, for transportation of guns, ammunition, &c., since General Fremont's command at St. Louis, will reach $30,000.

TRANSFERS WANTED.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

TRANSFERS WANTED. I have a number of transfers of all kinds, and will accept of any transfer, and will issue a receipt for the same. Address: No. 121 Broadway, New York.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET. GENTS, LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN. W. E. SCHMERTZ & CO., No. 31 FIFTH STREET.

Vermin. "Cottar's" Rat, Roach, & Exterminator. "Cottar's" Bed-bug Exterminator. "Cottar's" Electric Powder for Insects, &c.

MANHOOD. HOW LOST HOW RESTORED. The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, offers a course of treatment to all who are afflicted with the same disease.

PERSONS OF FULL HABITS. Who are subject to Catarrhs, Headache, Giddiness, Dizziness, and ringing in the ears, arising from a flow of blood to the head, should never be without BARKER'S PINK PILLS.

TESTIMONY. FROM J. M. HENRY, ESQ. I have been afflicted with Catarrh of the Bladder for several years, and have tried every remedy, but have not been cured until I used your medicine.

TESTIMONY. FROM J. M. HENRY, ESQ. I have been afflicted with Catarrh of the Bladder for several years, and have tried every remedy, but have not been cured until I used your medicine.