Some Construction of the proceeding movements met with any opposition whatever, as the robel anny had on Friday night retreated from the whole line of their position fronting Washington. Upton's Hill, this side of Halls Church, is necessarily included among the points now held by the federal forces. The works of the enemy at the places they had evacuated were, in a military view, almost worthless, being nothing more than tills pits of very common construction. The positions at Munson's and Murray's Hill afforting the rebels nearly an unobstructed view of all rebels nearly an unobstructed view of all our fortifications and other defences. The appearance of the ground deserted by the rebels indicate that they were deficient in rebels indicate that they were deficient in those arrangements which serve to make a camp life comforts ble, having no tents but merely shelters indely constructed. There were no signs to show that they had ever mounted any guns there. Our troops are now so employed as to show that they do not merely intend temporarily to compy their present positions.

The styance of Gen. Smith on Falls Church from the Chain Bridge, was attended by events of the most deplorable charecter. Having passed Vanderwerker's and Vanderberg's houses on their way to the former place, and when about helf a mile from it, by some unaccountable blurader, Col. Owen's Philadelphia frish regiment, in the darinees of the night inistaking for the rebels. Opp. Mot's battery, which was in the advance, sustained by Col. Baker's California regiment. The Calls fornis regiment not knowing whence the and wounding a large number. The Callfornia regiment not knowing, whence the firing came, returned it with smarked effect. The horses attached to Capt Mott's battery became unmanageable, and the tongues of the classons were broken, owing to the narrowness of the road. Liqui.
Bryant having command of the first, section, ordered the guns to be loaded with grape and canister, and soon had them in rapge to rake the supposed enemy, when word was sent to him that he was in the company of friends. All was excitement, and a long time elapsed before the actual condition of affairs was ascertained and confidence established. Many confused stories prevail as to the parties on whom the blame should rest. The killed of Capt.
Mott's battery is Timothy Ray. Wounded, Corporal Bartlett and private Cilley, both of whom will probably die, as they, were not only run over by the gun carriages, but trampled on by the cavalry horse.
