HARRISBURG, Oct. 1.—The fiftieth regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, commanded by Col. Christ, one thousand strong, and fully equipped, has just left Camp Curting for Washington, Previous to the regiment's leaving, the ernor Curtin, with an effective and patriotic address. Col. Christ reponded in an appropriate manner, and the affair passed off very enthusiastically. Colonel Colter's regiment will leave tomorrow. Nothing is wanted for the efficiency and comfort of our troops but blankets. We should supply our Pennsylvania troops first, and much surprise and regret is felt here at the call of the Mayor of Philadelphia for blankets to be sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton before our own troops of the sent to Washengton the sent to the sent to Washengton the sent to the sent to Washengton the sent to the sen
