Price had loit Lexington with the main body of his force and is moving south-ward for the purpose of effecting a junc-tion with McCullongh, after which he will give General Fromont battle. Dr. White represents that Price is decided upon this point, having been elated and intexicated by his victory at Lexington. He says that Price anticipated an easy vic-tory over Fremont at this point and will then move on to St. Louis. There were no less than 24,000 seconsists ready to rise and welcame him with arms in their rise and welcome him with arms in their hands. Dr. White thinks that the rebels will endeavor to get between us and the force at Georgetown, surround and cut off Davie, and then most Fremont near this lace. The rebel force has 19 field pieces and are expecting rifled cannon from the 4th. General Price told the Ductor that and are clamoring to bu led against Fre-mont. Dr. White brings a sorry statement in regard to the conduct of the rebels towards the wounded at Laxington. They took away from him all his hospital stores, not leaving him even a sponge. A portion of Price's forces had moved towards Inderendence There were but three hundred men in Warreneburg when the Doctor passed through there. He thinks Price's force numbers fully 40,000.

Special to the St Louis Republican : Dr. White says he heard on his way here, that 18,000 rebels had parted from the main body and marched toward George-town, with the intention of taking the twelve miles from that town. The D-ctor believes that the rebels have no idea of
