We have official returns from only one regiment, the Thirteenth-from the rest nothing reliable. The Thirteenth gives Woods 111 majority and Blackmore 82.

We shall give the full official returns from the county to morrow.

The frantic appeals of the officeholders' organ, the Gazette, were barely successful in electing a portion of the straight Republican ticket. Nine, out of fifteen, on the Union ticket have been elected, and the balance came within a few hundred votes of being successful. The most shameful appeals to party spirit were made to spur men into the ranks. Threats of being denounced by name were made, and gross misrepresentations resorted to, to secure, not the triumph of principle, but the spoils of office.

It may be true, as the Gazette and certain Republican leaders asserted, that honor of our brave old Commonwealth. this is a Republican Administration, and that that party is abundantly able to do the fighting and voting, There is a selfreliance in this assertion which, if borne out by the facts would be commendable But it is not true, yet they may be forced to try it.

It will not do much towards encourage ing enlistments and filling with enthusiasm the ranks of our army, by denounce ing Democrats as traitors at heart and insincere, even in uniforms. It is ad vertised here, and let it be forever subdued, insemuch as they but lack the and clinch hands with the South, and commissions in the army and high and responsible civil offices in your midst. The editor of the Gazette denied in his he said: paper, a short time ago, that the profitsecure to every citizen an absolute right to able office of paymaster was added to his speak, or write, or print weatsoever h other offices, it being incompatible; but we hear of him in St. Louis performing the duties of that position and still finds time to abuse thousands of privates in every citizen the right to destroy at his the ranks and insult thousands more pleasure the reputation, the peace, the who will be called upon to defend their flag, with their blood.
