The Military Habeas Corpus Case. On Saturday morning, at ten o'clock, before Judge Mellon, the hearing in the application for discharge, on habeas cor-pus, of Thomas Connolly and Patrick Galvin, arrested and committed as deserters on information of Capt. Foley, with whom they enlisted, but subsequently left and joined the Irish Brigade, in New York, was resumed, Wm. C. Moreland. Esq., appearing for the prisoners and Thomas M. Marshal, Esq., on behalf of the United States.

Capt. Henry Hays, United States Recruiting Officer, teetified that the defendants were mustered into the service, at his ants were mustered into the service, at his recruiting office, National Hotel, having volunteered in Capt. Foley's company for three years, or during the war.

Sergeant Davis testified that the men

Capt. Foley was then called on behalf of the relators, and testified that he was not a commissioned officer; he had written for a commission, but had not yet received an answer: neither had he been elected by ready seen ninatesn years and three months.

The testimony here closed, and Mr. Moreland asked that the men be discharged. He took the position that Capt. Foley had no authority to raise a company; and that the offence, if any had been committed, was not cognizable in a civil court. If ey really had deserted, (which they had not) they were punishable by military law. They were willing, however, that the Court should remand them into the custody of any military officer who would give them an opportunity for active service. Judge Mellon remarked that it was not usual for the Court to interfere with commitments for a further hearing. The par-ties might be remanded until Monday, the day fixed for their final hearing before the I.ARGE CLEAR TYPE.

EXCITING NEWS OF THE DAY! Capt. Hays, to be disposed of as he might think best. The Court acceded to this request, and the men were taken charge of by Capt. Hays. Dr. von Moschzisker. -This gentles

man has now been some considerable time in our city, and we, as well as all our co-temporaries, have repeatedly had oppor-tunity to speak of him. We will not now eulogize his professional abilities, but we wish to touch upon the subject of his pro-fession. Dr. von M. did not come among as as a stranger, his wide-spread reputa-tion went before him, and if the testimony BEND YOUR DOLLA BY MAIL AT OUR RISE of such men as he brought with him are of any value, which no one can deny, he had every reason to obtain the full con-dence of our community. Moreover, the easy, open, honorable way in which he spoke through the public press, was that of a man who feels his ability, and is anxxious that he should not be confounded with mere pretenders. He announced that no one need expect any garantee of cures, that he merely professed to do the best of his ability in curable cases, but no miracles, and that there might be some cases which would even baffle his great experience as an aurist. He further not only stated that all those who wished to consult him, might, if they chose, bring their family physician with them, but particularly invited the medical men of the city to visit his Consulting Rooms to be present when he operated, that they might see what he is able to do in a branch of medical science to which he has given his exclusive atten-tion. That he was entitled to their confidence in his knowledge he referred them to his published works for the particular use of medical men. Those of our physi-cians who have visited him have all spoken of him in highest terms. There is usually a point of medical etiquette which often prejudices medical men against hose who advertise, no matter how skilful they may be; but when a man practices and confines that practice to a particular PLAIN AND FANCY PRINTING public know that he does devote himself

o that or this branch of the medical profession, and if one courts the presence of the profession in the way Dr. M. has done the profession in the way Dr. M. has done that prejudice should at once vanish, as it has in every city where Dr. von M. has remained any length of time. Dr. M.'s profession, though one of the noblest in the branch of medical science, is yet combined with numerous difficulties which the general prostitions does not exercise. general practitioner does not experience; articularly is this the case in the treat. ment of aural science. Diseases of the ear, in an acute state, as we are assured by Dr. M., will, in almost all cases, be ured in from one to three months, but worse and give up the treatment without even having given the means used a fair trial to approach what may be called a good test. In cases where patients have given him a fair trial, and the case is at all a him a fair trial, and the case is at all a two nights. However, as no money was found on his person; he was discharged. ness, Dr. von Moschzisker is certainly most able to accomplish a cure and wil invariably be successful, and no one should neglect to seek the means of recovering two such valuable senses as sight and hearing. DISCHARGED - Wm. Carr, colored, con fined in jail on a charge of perjury, was discharged on Saturday morning, the grand jury having ignored the bill against him. Edward Holt was also discharged

Our loss is four killed and ten wounded. Let us hope that other Pennsylvania regiments will give as good an account of themselves. I believe they will, for there are no troops now in the will, for there are no troops now in the sat, engaged in writing home. In per-forming the manual, at "ground arms," one of the soldiess advanced the right, in-stead of the left foot, and in rectifying the mistake, his foot struck the lock of the gun, occasioning a premature direntarge. The Campaign in Western Virginia. It is the opinion of the Wheeling Intel. igencer that the campaign in Western Virginia is virtually ended. It says:—
i Rosecrans has fallen back and taken a position on the Charleston and Lewisburg harmails a ghort distance above the inceurnpike, a short distance above the june on of New and Gauley rivers. The rebel army appears also to have retired towards Lewisburg. The roads are represented as naving become so bad in that region as to military transportation next to impossible, and that, of course, renders any portant army movement impracticable. for a time at least. There ought to be a month of good weather yet, however, and in that time something might and ought to be done, for we take it that the bad roads at this juncture are occasioned by the heavy rains a week or two back, and will soon be solid again. The real difficulty, we think, is that Bosecrans division is not strong enough to act on the offensive, and it is no regarded judicious to advance too far into an enemy's country at this season of the year, when a rain storm might at any time stop transportation, without a force suffi-cient to meet any that might be brought against it. If the army of Western Virginia is not largely reinforced very shortly t will have to content itself for the remain er of the reason with acting on the defensive. This will not be an arduous service The rebels have been singularly unfortunate in all their undertakings against Western Virginia, and they will trouble us no more this winter.' KILLED ON THE RAILEOAD .- A memer of an Iowa regiment died at McVey. town a few days since, having been run over by a train off which he fell on last Wednesday morning, while passing through with his regiment. He was single THOMAS FARLEY'S and has only one relative, a sister, whose whereabouts he did not know. He was interred in the Methodist cemetery.

Another Regiment for Kentucky. -Tao destination of the Second Minnesota (not Michigan, as the compositor made GENTS us say on Saturday) regiment, which arrived here on Friday night, was changed after their arrival here and on Saturday they were shipped off to Louisville on the steamers Anglo-Saxon, Rocket and Marmora, chartered for the purpose by Quartermaster Ekin. The boats got off about two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and being less heavily laden, may overtake Gen. Negley's Brigade. They are ordered to report to Gen. Sherman.

BURGLARY IN ALLEGHENY CITY. About 12 o'clock on Friday night, the the difficulty is that the most cases seen by tavern of J. Schulz, Ohio street, Alleghe an aurist, have become of a chronic nature from neglect to apply until they are driven from neglect to apply until they are driven to do so, after having tampered with all kind of nestrums, and when they do place themselves under treatment they expect that a cure will be accomplished after two or three months, and if this is not the case, they are not only disappointed and discouraged, but actually fancy their case worse and give up the treatment without aven having given the means used a fair white-wash, apparently rubbed from the window frame by which the cellar was found on his person; he was discharged. COMMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS .- At meeting of the field, staff and company officers of Col. Leasure's Roundhead regis ment, on the 16th inst, they passed a series of resolutions complimentary to their late Licutenant Colonel, James A. Ekin, regretting that the Government had decided o keep him in the present position of As. sistant Quartermaster General at Pitts. burgh.

BY TELEGRAPH Difficulty Regarding British

Subjects. WASHINGTON, October 19 .- Lord Lyon several days ago addressed a letter to the Secretary of State, in which he said that her Maj sity's Government was much concerned to find that two B-itish subjects, Messis. Patrick and Rahming, had been subjected to arbitrary arrest, and although they had been released, it could not but regard the matter as one requiring very serious consideration. Lord Lyons, under instructions, therefore, felt bound to re monstrate against such irregular -proceedings, as he designates them, and to say that the authority of Congress is necessary in order to sanction the arbitrary arrest an imprisonment of British subjects.

Secretary Seward, in the course of his reply, after detailing the facts in regard to the two persons named in Lord Lyons' note, says: "The proceedings of which the British Government complains were taken upon information conveyed to the President by the level relies at the process." lent by the legal police authority of the country, and they were not instituted until after he had suspended the great writ o freedom in just the extent that in view of well as his advisers, among whom are the and amenable also to the judgement of his countrymen and the enlightened opinion of the civilized world. And in conclusion," Mr. Seward remarks, "the safety of the whole people has become in the presen emergency the supreme law, and so long a the danger shall exist all classes of society equally, the denizon and citizen, cheerfully acquiesce in the measures which that law precribe. "This government does not question the learning of the legal advisers of the British Crown, or the justice of the deference which Her Majesty pays to them. Nevertheless, the British government will hardly expect that the President will accept their explanation of the constitution of the suppressing the existing insurrection, while nounced a valuable addition to the break crop.

The circular shows that our relations abroad are in good conlition, and that the Government means to keep them so.

The nation, six months ago, became ex osed to dangers within and without. The Administration has taken adequate mea sures to put them right within, and now turns to putting them right without.
